REED IS WINNER; DEMOCRATS HAVE THE LEGISLATURE

Kansas Cityan's Plurality in the Senate Race Probably Is More Than 35,000, and a Safe Majority on Joint Ballot in the Assembly Is Practically Certain

REPUBLICANS SAVE THEIR STATE TICKET

McKinley Wins Senatorial Nomination, as He Did 2 Years Ago, but Again Will Lose Toga When the Actual Election Takes Place.

James A. Reed of Kansas City is the Democratic nominee for United States Senator. In Tuesday's primary election Reed defeated David R. Francis of St. Louis by probably more than 35,000 votes. Incomplete returns from the State indicate the election of a Democratic Legislature, thereby insuring Reed's elevation to the Senate next January.

The overwhelming Republican majority in St. Louis probably resulted in the election of the entire Republican State ticket, including two members of the Supreme Court, a Railroad and Warehouse Commissioner and the Superintendent of Public Schools. The Republican State candidates ran right along with the city candidates in St. Louis, having an average majority of 21,000 over their Democratic opponents.

John C. McKinley of Unionville won the Republican Senatorial nomination. In the country districts he ran away from Nathan Frank of St. Louis and A. E. L. Gardner of Clayton. McKinley won the Senatorial nomination over R. C. Kerens two years ago, but as the Legislature was Democratic then, he lost the actual election, as he will this year with the Democrats controlling the Assembly on joint ballot.

The Democrats lost three members of the House of Representatives and one State Senator in St. Louis, but they gained one in Kansas City, one in Joplin, and one each in Atchison, Davies, Petis, De Kalb and Laclede counties.

The Democratic State ticket made slight gains throughout the State, but not enough to overcome the Republican landslide in St. Louis.

Returns From 30 Counties.

St. Louis gave Francis a majority of a little more than 10,000. Reed's majority in Kansas City will practically offset the Francis majority in St. Louis.

Complete returns from 30 counties give Reed a majority of 24,000 over Francis. The returns show that Reed has carried probably more than 100 counties. His average majority in each county is from 500 to 1000 votes.

Reed would not make any estimate of his own majority, but his supporters in Kansas City say it would not surprise them if it runs up to 40,000 or more.

Francis has carried three counties outside of St. Louis, according to returns now in. He won Buchanan County by 1500 votes, and Franklin and Maries Counties by small majorities.

All of the big Democratic counties have gone for Reed. Boone County, which the Francis people counted on carrying, gave Reed a majority of 600. So far not a single county north of the Missouri River has given Francis a majority. Randolph County gave Reed a majority of more than 1300. Many of the other big Democratic counties gave Reed 1000 or more majority. Reed carried some counties by more than three to one, and Texas County by seven to one.

Reed carried Pemiscot County, which Francis considered one of his strongholds, by 600. Clinton County gave Reed 600 majority.

The Kansas City candidate was not only strong north of the Missouri River, but he seems to have swept nearly all of the counties south of the river.

The Figures for St. Louis.

Returns from all but two of the 203 St. Louis precincts give Francis a majority of 10,768 over Reed. Minus these two precincts Francis received 27,185, and Reed 16,417. The Francis supporters had claimed the city Tuesday by 40,000, about 13,000 more than the total vote received by their candidate.

Charles D. Morris, chairman of the Republican State Committee concedes the election of a Democratic Legislature. The Globe-Democrat, the Republican organ, basing its estimates upon its county returns, also concedes the Legislature to the Democrats.

Reed told the Post-Dispatch in a long-distance telephone message that he was certain the Democrats have carried the Legislature.

Kansas City gave Reed an approximate majority of 8000 over Francis. The entire Democratic tickets were elected in Kansas City and Jackson County by 4000 to 5000 votes.

Later returns indicate that Walter L. Hensley, Democrat, was elected over Politte Ivins, Republican, in the Thirteenth Congressional District.

PANAMANIANS FEAR RESULT OF DEMOCRATIC LANDSLIDE

Copyright, 1910, by the Press Pub. Co. (New York World.)

PANAMA, Nov. 9.—Returns from the elections in the United States were received with silence, interrupted with some applause, by the Government officials and employes in the administration building at Ancon. The cable office and the cafes here were crowded with Panamanians, who regarded the prospects of Democratic success with trepidation.

It is feared that a Democratic Congress will inquire into the antecedents of the Isthmus republic. The leaders have looked upon Roosevelt as their protector against being returned to Colombia, the country from which they seceded and which they believe would chastise them for rebelling. Consequently they are downcast over Roosevelt's defeat.

NEGRO PORTER'S BON MOT SAVES SALOONIST'S CASH

Burglars Laugh When He Assures Them He Wouldn't Be There if the Cash Was.

Two burglars enjoyed a laugh and a saloon keeper's money was saved by the wit of Joe Johnson, a negro porter, early Wednesday. The burglars entered Edward Krenninghaus' saloon at 2948 Easton avenue, and finding the porter asleep in the back room awakened him.

"Where's the boss' money?" asked one of the burglars as he held a revolver to Anderson's head.

"Sakes alive," he stuttered. "If the boss kept his money here he wouldn't let me sleep in the place." The burglars laughed heartily and departed.

MISSOURI VOTERS DOWN PROHIBITION BY FULLY 150,000

St. Louis Contributes 125,000 Majority in Favor of the Liquor Interests and Kansas City and Jackson County Produce Approximately 24,000 More.

PROPOSITION IS LOSER WITHOUT CITY BALLOT

Country Surprises Anti-Saloon Forces, After Being Counted Upon to Aid Then—Prepare to Submit Proposition in 1912.

Prohibition has been overwhelmingly defeated in Missouri. The majority against the Tenth Constitutional Amendment is estimated at not less than 150,000.

St. Louis rolled up a majority of approximately 125,000 against prohibition and Kansas City and Jackson County contributed 24,000 more. Returns from the interior of the State show that many counties where the prohibition sentiment was considered strong were carried by the liquor advocates.

The returns indicate that outside of St. Louis and Kansas City the State has voted against prohibition.

Win Every Kansas City Precinct.

In St. Louis the vote against prohibition, with 2 out of 403 precincts missing, was 133,318, with only 7770 in its favor. The majority against prohibition on the face of the incomplete police returns is 125,548. Every voting precinct in Kansas City was against prohibition. The majority in the city against prohibition was 20,000, while the precincts of Jackson County will bring the majority up to 24,000. Springfield cast 5729 votes for prohibition and 2457 against it. Joplin voted for liquor by more than 2000. Buchanan County gave a majority against prohibition of 3000.

The fight against State-wide prohibition was conducted from St. Louis, led by the Citizens' Defense Committee and practically every civic and business organization in the city went on record against it.

The Citizens' Defense Committee contributed $10,000 to both the Democratic and Republican City Committees, and Henry Nicolaus, a brewer, gave $10,000 to each committee. Speeches were made against prohibition at all of the ward meetings in St. Louis.

George J. Tansey was chairman of the Citizens' Defense Committee; Joseph J. McAuliffe, secretary, and G. H. Walker, treasurer. Its membership list included practically all of the bankers and big wholesale and retail merchants and manufacturers of St. Louis.

Country Strength Overestimated.

The returns from the country indicate that the prohibitionists had greatly overestimated their strength in the rural districts. They declared they expected to come to St. Louis with a majority of 50,000 or 60,000. It generally was expected that Kansas City would be close on the proposition, but the majority of 24,000 against prohibition there shows how badly mistaken the foes of saloons were in their estimates.

W. C. T. U. LEADER DECLARES FIGHT IS JUST STARTED

Mrs. E. A. P. Hayes Says Defeat Spurs Organization to Greater Effort.

Mrs. E. A. P. Hayes, treasurer of the St. Louis District, Women's Christian Temperance Union, in the absence of Mrs. F. H. Ingalls, the president, who is on her way to Baltimore to attend the national convention of the organization, told a Post-Dispatch reporter Wednesday that the fight for State-wide prohibition had only begun.

"Never in my life," Mrs. Hayes said, "did I feel stronger in my faith that prohibition will eventually carry. Our defeat is only the beginning of victory. Do you think we are going to quit just because the votes are against us? Never!

"The Women's Christian Temperance Union will carry on this fight incessantly. We will begin today to get ready to submit the same proposition to the people two years hence. And we shall resubmit it at each succeeding election until we are victorious.

"We understand that prohibition could never be a thorough success until it is adopted nationally. That is our aim. We know as well as anyone that prohibition cannot be enforced unless the sale and manufacture of liquor are stopped in every State in the Union."

A copy of an interview with Rev. E. J. Moore of the Antisaloon League, who has announced that a movement is on foot to ask the Legislature to pass a law authorizing county unit local option and city district local option, now that State-wide prohibition has proved so unpopular, was shown Mrs. Hayes.

"I don't wish to criticise anybody who is in the work of putting down the saloon," Mrs. Hayes said, "but if the Antisaloon League had entered the prohibition fight in time, instead of hanging back, the result in Missouri might have been different."

The Rev. Mr. Moore had said Wednesday that the Antisaloon League would reopen a fight it started two years ago for the right to establish county and city local option.

"We do not think any temperate man with a wide view of State affairs is surprised at the result of Tuesday's vote on prohibition," he said, "unless it is at the size of the majority. The Board of Trustees of the Antisaloon League protested against the submission of Amendment 10 to the people, and we so told the prohibition leaders. We took no hand in the prohibition fight until the required number of signatures were had to authorize its submission. City district local option could be arranged in precincts or wards, as the Legislature saw fit."

Electioneering Auto as Ambulance.

As Judge Wilson A. Taylor, who was one of the leaders of the candidates for circuit judgeships, was passing 3527 Wisconsin avenue, Tuesday afternoon, Tony Uriaub of 2243 Michigan avenue was knocked down by a horse. Judge Taylor lifted Uriaub into his electioneering auto and drove with him to the Alexian Brothers' Hospital. His right arm was broken.

DEMOCRATS IN CITY ELECT 2 JUSTICES AND 2 CONSTABLES

LAWLER DALEY BEATEN BY HIS NEGRO OPPONENT

The Republican party, defeated or barely successful in other places throughout the United States, won an overwhelming victory in St. Louis at Tuesday's election. The entire city ticket, the three congressmen, every city member of the Legislature elected Tuesday were Republicans.

The low men on the Republican city ticket had majorities which approached that of Sheriff Nolte, the highest man on the Howe Republican ticket of 1908, and which far exceeded the majorities of Mayor Kreismann and the city ticket of 1909.

The only Democrats elected to any office in St. Louis were Justices Jimmy Miles and Frank M. Kleiber, the latter of whom was ahead by the latest returns, and John Clooney and Thomas Quinn, elected constables in the Third and Sixth justice districts. Charles Turpin, a negro, was elected Constable in the Fourth District over Lawler Daley, auditor of the Democratic City Committee.

The pluralities of the Republican city candidates, as shown by the nearly complete returns available at noon Wednesday, ranged from 20,000 for Recorder Joy over E. P. Creecy to nearly 28,000 for License Collector Alt, Councilman-elect Leahy and Probate Judge Holtcamp.

The highest majority achieved by any Republican nominee in 1909 was 23,344 by Marshal Weinbrenner, while in the same election Mayor Kreismann won by 11,643, and Collector Koeln by 1867.

In 1908 Nolte was elected Sheriff by 24,781 plurality, but the pluralities of other Republican winners were as low as 2400. This year Withrow, the low man on the Republican judicial ticket, appears to have at least 20,000 plurality, while the high men on the general ticket, Alt, Leahy and Holtcamp, will go over the 26,000 mark.

David R. Francis' lead over James A. Reed in St. Louis for the senatorial nomination was so slight as apparently to remove any prospect that he could have won the Democratic nomination in the State. It was predicted before the election that Francis would need a 25,000 to 30,000 plurality in St. Louis to offset Reed's advantage in other parts of the State. He got less than 11,000 plurality, according to estimates made from incomplete returns Wednesday.

In 318 of 403 precincts, Francis got 19,477, and Reed 11,730, a plurality of 7747 for Francis.

The victory of Catlin in the Eleventh congressional contest over Pat Gill, candidate for re-election in what was supposed to be a safely Democratic district, was one of the surprises of the day. Catlin preached straight standpat doctrine in his campaign speeches. He estimated his plurality, from returns available at 8 a. m., at 1700.

L. C. Dyer's victory over Tom Kinney in the Twelfth was equally unexpected. Kinney's popularity and his previous record of large majorities in his campaigns for the House of Delegates and the State Senate had led his friends to believe his election certain.

Overwhelming Defeat of Prohibition Reflected in All Other Amendments

The high men on the Republican city ticket were License Collector Alt, whose majority approaches 27,000; John S. Leahy for the City Council, with a plurality exceeding 26,000, and Probate Judge Holtcamp, elected by a plurality only slightly smaller. Judge Wilson A. Taylor led the Circut judges, but Judge Sale's high vote kept him from getting as large a plurality as the leaders on the general ticket, and he ran about even with Calvin Miller, elected to the bench of the Court of Criminal Correction as Taylor's successor. Judge Fisher also ran close to Taylor.

Former Chief of Police Creecy, next to Judge Sale, led the Democratic ticket, but the personal campaign made in his behalf only resulted in reducing his opponent's majority by about 3000, as compared with the high Republican nominees. Marcus Bernheimer and Casper Wolf ran next among the Democrats.

Nathan Frank's lead over John C. McKinley in this city for the Republican senatorial nomination was estimated at 5000, and was not expected to stand against McKinley's lead throughout the State.

All Amendments Suffer.

With the overwhelming vote against the prohibition amendment, the other ten amendments also suffered heavy adverse votes in St. Louis. The reports of election officials indicated that thousands voted No on all the amendments, to make sure of voting against the prohibition amendment, and that many more voted on the prohibition amendment alone and ignored the others.

As the advocates of the police pension amendment counted on this city to supply a majority, it is believed that the proposal cannot have carried the State. The fate of other amendments is doubtful, as none is believed to have received more than 40,000 favorable votes in St. Louis. The fifth, for a new State capitol, fared the best, and it was still voted nearly two to one here.

The State Republican candidates ran neck and neck with the leaders of the city ticket. Evans, for State Superintendent of Schools, was slightly ahead of Judge Taylor in the incomplete returns. Kastulik, for the Supreme Court (short term) was almost as strong with St. Louis voters, while Brown (long term) was slightly ahead of Judge Withrow on the city ticket. Wightman, for State Railroad Commissioner, led all the State candidates here.

Henry S. Caulfield's election to the St. Louis Court of Appeals, for a district which includes eastern Missouri, seemed to be assured by his big plurality. The incomplete returns showed him running ahead of Wightman and of the high men on the city ticket.

Caulfield had 80,296 in 318 precincts to 38,852 for Charles W. Bates, Democratic nominee. He expected that the country districts would leave him at least half of his plurality, if they did not leave it unimpaired.

Only two Democrats will represent St. Louis in the next session of the Legislature. These are Thomas E. Kinney, who has still two years to serve as Senator from the Thirty-first District, and Joseph H. Brogan of the Thirty-third, who was elected with Kinney in 1908, and also will hold over.

The Republican gain in the Legislature from St. Louis is one in the Senate, Phillips replacing Prendergast in the Thirty-second District, and three in the House, the third representative district having gone Democratic in 1908.

Unusually Heavy Vote.

Republican city leaders declared Wednesday that organizations and skillful methods of getting out the vote accounted for a large part of the party's plurality, and that the rest was due to the unusually large vote brought out by the anti-prohibition campaign. The Democratic leaders had little to say.

In David R. Francis' home precinct, the Fifth of the Twenty-fifth Ward, he got 207 votes to Reed's 26 for Senator, while Shewalter and Bond got two votes each. Frank got 169 votes from the Republicans of the precinct, McKinley 9 and Gardner 1.

A remarkable development, according to Chairman Kortjohn of the Election Board, was that thousands of voters voted on the prohibition amendment alone, and threw aside the candidates' ticket. Incomplete returns showed that the total vote on the tenth amendment was 6000 larger than the total vote on the leading candidates. The Socialist vote, which was not figured in Tuesday night's count, will supply a part of this discrepancy.

The counting room in the basement of the Four Courts was deserted early by Democratic candidates and committeemen. As the magnitude of the Republican victory was displayed most of the Republicans also went home.

Those who remained through the night were John B. Owen, manager of Nathan Frank's senatorial campaign; United States Marshal Regenhardt, Congressman-elect Catlin and his manager, Nat Goldstein. Judge-elect Henry S. Caulfield appeared at the room soon after 4 a. m., and figured busily on his standing as compared to the other high men on the Republican city ticket.

Caulfield, who was the last Republican elected from the Eleventh district, congratulated Catlin on having greatly multiplied the narrow majority by which Caulfield won four years ago.

"You'll need more than I had," said Caulfield, alluding to the fact that Congress would have a Democratic majority. Caulfield's plurality in 1906 was only 38, and he lost 10 pounds in weight while waiting for the official count.

KIEL TELLS WHY THEY WON; FAY CALLS ST. LOUIS POKY

Henry Kiel, Chairman of the Republican City Committee, and Herman W. Fay, Chairman of the Democratic City Central Committee, made statements to the Post-Dispatch Wednesday morning on the results of the election.

Kiel said: "The people spoke and told us what they wanted. Good organization did it. Every man was in his place and did his work well. I am of course very much gratified over the outcome. It pleases me, too, to find that the result so nearly agrees with my prediction."

Fay said: "The people of St. Louis are not progressive enough. That is the reason there are so many 'for rent' signs in St. Louis. The city is not up to date. It is slow and poky. That is why it will never have a million population. Chicago and Kansas City are walking away from us. There are more 'for rent' signs in St. Louis than in New York, Chicago and Kansas City combined. The Democratic party, in this campaign as always, stood for progress. I would rather be right and lose than wrong and win.'

RHODE ISLAND'S REPUBLICAN OVERNOR SUEEZES IN AGAIN

Had Big Plurality Last Time—There Will Be a Deadlock Over Senatorship.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 9.—Elected a year ago by the largest plurality ever accorded a candidate for Governor in Rhode Island, Gov. Pothier, Republican, was re-elected for a second term yesterday by a plurality of 903, one of the smallest votes in the history of gubernatorial contests in the State.

The total vote was:

The Democrats elected George F. Shaughnessy to Congress from the First District, while the Republicans won with George H. Utter in the Second.

The next Assembly will be deadlocked over the election of a successor of Senator Nelson W. Aldrich.

REPUBLICAN PROBABLY WILL BE NEXT TENNESSEE GOVERNOR

Hooper's Plurality Seems to Be 15,000 to 18,000, From Reports.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 9.—The result of today's elections seems to be: B. W. Hooper, Republican and Fusionist, Governor by 15,000 to 18,000, and a possible small fusion majority in the Legislature.

In the congressional races R. W. Austin, Republican, appears to have defeated N. W. Hale, Independent Republican; Sells, Republican, defeated C. H. Lyle in the First; Z. D. Massey, Republican, was elected to fill out the unexpired term of W. P. Brownlow. In the other eight districts the Democrats have won.

LATE RETURNS IN IOWA INDICATE CARROLL'S ELECTION

They Wipe Out the Lead That Porter Held in the Cities.

SOUTH DAKOTA IS REPUBLICAN

Governor and Two Congressmen Win, but Local Option Loses by More Than 5000.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Nov. 9.—Latest returns from South Dakota show the Republicans elected Gov. Vessey and Congressman Burke and Martin by majorities estimated from 10,000 to 15,000. The county option amendment, backed by the prohibitionists, is reported to have been beaten by more than 5000.

REED PLEDGES TO FIGHT TERMINAL

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 9.

REPLYING to your request for a statement: I stand for a tariff for revenue only, and favor levying this, as far as possible, upon luxuries rather than necessities. In order that the burdens of the tariff tax may be lightened as much as possible, a direct tax upon incomes of both persons and corporations should be imposed and an amendment to the Constitution granting this power to the Government should be passed.

The legislation in relation to interstate commerce should be such that the commission be clothed with sufficient power to enable it to meet every aspect of the complex questions presented by the interstate transportation of merchandise. And measures should be taken to obtain for the Missouri and transmissouri territory fair and equitable rates.

I OPPOSE any legislation or policy which will tend toward centralization. The right of state and local self-government should not be impaired.

Corporations entering states for the purpose of continuously doing business therein should be compelled to submit to the laws and courts of the states.

The Mississippi and Missouri Rivers ought to be made navigable and their rich bottom lands protected. This should be pushed with vigor. The anti-trust statutes should be rigidly enforced and, if necessary, amended and strengthened, and their criminal provisions applied against all who violate the same.

We should return to the practice of strict economy.

Business methods should be introduced in the conduct of public affairs, graft eliminated and unnecessary office abolished.

Every effort should be put forth to break the hold of the terminal monopoly of St. Louis. I believe it is within the power of the Government to accomplish this result, and will endeavor in every way possible to bring it about.

PLEASE express my deep gratitude to the thousands of friends who, without reward or hope of reward, have tirelessly labored for my success.

Let me also express my gratitude to the St. Louis Post-Dispatch for its very generous support.

JAMES A. REED.

Hensley's election will give the Democrats 12 out of the 16 Congressmen.

There is a close fight between Russell, Democrat, and Crow, Republican, in the Fourteenth District. The returns are so incomplete that the district is still classed as doubtful, with both Russell and Crow claiming election.

A. P. Murphy, stand-pat Republican, was defeated in the Sixteenth District by about 600 voters. Thomas L. Rubey, former lieutenant-governor of Missouri, was the Democrat who defeated Murphy.

A special dispatch from Joplin says that James A. Daugherty, Democrat, defeated Charles S. Morgan, Republican, by 800 majority.

If Russell is elected in the Fourteenth District the Democrats will have every Missouri Congressman outside St. Louis.

The returns show the election of 12 Democratic Congressmen, with the Fourteenth district still in doubt. The successful men, on the face of the returns are:

FIRST DISTRICT.

DEMOCRATS WIN OKLAHOMA; REPUBLICANS ADMIT DEFEAT

Election of State Ticket Is Conceded, but Bird S. McGuire Goes to Congress.

GUTHRIE, Ok., Nov. 9.—At noon the Republicans conceded the election of the Democratic State ticket, but it developed that Bird S. McGuire, Republican, was elected to Congress from the First District. It seemed probable that Dick T. Morgan, Republican, was elected Congressman from the Second Disrict, but the contest was still in doubt.

TEXAS ELECTS A DEMOCRAT FOR GOVERNOR BY 130,000

Legislature to Decide Whether Prohibition Amendment Will Be Submitted.

DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 9.—Colquitt, Democrat, for Governor, received a plurality of approximately 130,000. The Socialists polled about 5000 votes.

The Legislature elected yesterday will decide whether a State-wide prohibition amendment shall be submitted to the voters for approval or rejection.

What Every Woman Ought to Know

Every woman knows that nothing is more annoying or reflects more upon her reputation as a careful housekeeper than rats, mice, cockroaches, water bugs, etc., in the house.

Every woman should know of the reliable exterminator for all vermin of this nature—Stearns' Electric Rat and Roach Paste. This paste is ready for use and drives rats and mice out of the house to die. Put in sinks and on shelves at night, cockroaches and water bugs are dead in the morning.

Money refunded if it fails. 2-ounce box, 25c; 16-ounce box, $1.00. Sold by druggists everywhere, or sent express prepaid on receipt of price.

DEMOCRATS WILL HAVE BIG MAJORITY IN NATIONAL HOUSE

EVEN MARGIN OF G. O. P. IN SENATE TO BE CUT DOWN

Late Reports of Tuesday's Election Emphasize Rather Than Diminish Force of the Landslide Which Has Overwhelmed Republicans Over the Country.

TAFT AND ROOSEVELT LOSE IN OWN STATES

Iowa, Indiana, Montana and Colorado in Doubt, Both Sides Expecting Victory—Kansas Elects Gov. Stubbs and a Democratic Legislature.

| Number necessary to control | 196 |
| Present Democratic membership | 172 |

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The sweep of the political tidal wave which rolled over the country yesterday is further emphasized by additional returns and revised figures at hand today.

The Democratic majority in the House of Representatives will be at least 24 and possibly more (as compared with the present Republican majority of 43.

Added to the reversal in the lower branch of Congress, the morning returns showed the Republican majority of 26 in the United States Senate rapidly was approaching the vanishing point, although the Republicans are now reasonably assured of 48 senators, or one more than the necessary majority, with a number of states still in doubt.

Some of Notable Changes.

The most notable changes from those presented last night are summed up as follows:

In Ohio a Democratic Legislature has been elected, insuring a Democratic successor to Senator Dick (Rep.), and the plurality of Gov. Harmon is increased to 60,000.

The West Virginia Legislature is Democratic and will elect a Democratic Senator to succeed Senator Scott, Republican.

In Indiana the Legislature which chooses a successor to Senator Beveridge is in doubt, with the Democrats asserting they have a majority of 13 and the Republicans maintaining Beveridge will have a small margin.

Iowa is still uncertain, with both sides claiming the governorship.

The Pennsylvania Legislature is Republican and will elect a Republican successor to Senator Oliver.

Washington has a Republican Legislature which appears to insure the election of Miles Poindexter to the Senate. The Utah Legislature, which elects a United States Senator, also is Republican, while that of Montana is in doubt.

Oregon Probably Democratic.

The Missouri Legislature, which elects a United States Senator, is conceded to be safely Democratic.

Aside from these main developments of today, the results already announced remain practically unchanged. The plurality of John A. Dix, Democrat, elected Governor of New York, approximates 165,000.

The plurality of Woodrow Wilson, Democrat, in New Jersey, is now placed at 20,000, and of Judge Baldwin, Democrat, in Connecticut, at 3500.

The greatest gain in any one State was New York, where the present delegation of 12 Democrats was increased by 10, making the division as to New York in the next House 22 Democrats, 26 Republicans. The representation from New York in the Sixty-first Congress is 25 Republicans, 12 Democrats.

The next large increase was in Illinois, where the Democrats, on the face of the returns, made six gains. In Pennsylvania the Democratic gains were five; New Jersey 5; Ohio 4; North Carolina 2; West Virginia 2; Missouri 2; Maryland 2; Maine 2; previously elected and one each in Connecticut, Indiana, Iowa, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Oklahoma and Rhode Island.

Taft and Roosevelt Beaten.

The two leaders of the Republican party, Taft and Roosevelt alike, met defeat in their home states. Roosevelt's home town of Oyster Bay went against him and his congressional district sent a Democratic representative to replace Congressman W. W. Cocks, Roosevelt's warm personal friend. His State repudiated the Republican candidate for Governor by 65,000 plurality. As an additional blow, the New York State Legislature is Democratic, and will elect a Democratic Senator to succeed Chauncey M. Depew.

Henry George to Congress.

In New York City, Congressman William S. Bennet was beaten by Henry George, and Herbert Parsons by Jefferson M. Levy. Congressman J. Sloat Fassett of Elmira, who went down to defeat in 1891 as a Republican candidate for Governor, yesterday lost his seat in the lower House, and Hamilton Fish was defeated for re-election as the Republican candidate in the First New York Congressional District.

How the States Went.

Democratic—Alabama, Connecticut, Florida, Kentucky, Maryland, Missouri, Massachusetts, Nevada, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Carolina, Texas and West Virginia.

Doubtful—Indiana, Colorado and Montana.

One of the most astonishing overturns was in the rock-ribbed Republican State of Massachusetts, where Eugene N. Foss, Democrat, has a majority of 30,000. Foss' campaign was made on a straight tariff issue. The Massachusetts Legislature is Republican and will elect Senator Lodge.

In New Jersey, Dr. Woodrow Wilson, who resigned the presidency of Princeton University to take up the work of the campaign, was swept into the Governor's chair by 20,000 votes, carrying with him a Democratic majority in the joint session of the Legislature and insuring a Democratic successor to Senator John Kean. Most of New Jersey's 10 congressmen will sit with the Democratic majority in the sixty-second Congress.

Connecticut has elected a Democrat governor for the first time since 1893, in the person of Judge Simeon E. Baldwin, who had a long drawn out controversy with Roosevelt over their respective views of compulsory compensation for working men injured in industrial accidents. The rest of the State officially will be Republican.

Kansas re-elected Gov. Stubbs, a Republican, by a reduced plurality, but the Democrats obtained control of the State Legislature.

FIGHT IS PREDICTED FOR SPEAKERSHIP

New Congressmen Will Make Trouble for Champ Clark, It Is Thought.

By Wire From the Washington Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The admission of President Taft several months ago when Congressman Eugene Foss was elected as a Democrat in a heavily Republican Massachusetts district, that the next House would be Democratic was confirmed when the news of the Democratic victory reached Washington. It was not news, the election results—it was the expected, and no one was more certain of the result than President Taft.

Since the Foss election President Taft has repeatedly told his friends that even with a Democratic Congress he hoped to carry out the program which he has inaugurated. He has pinned great faith on the sober second thought of the American people. Now he has a chance to test his theory.

The results of the election, it is said here, indicate conclusively that the Payne-Aldrich tariff law which President Taft signed was the issue and the high cost of living the argument. The rebukes administered throughout the country have all been aimed at the supporters of Aldrichism and Cannonism.

Yesterday's elections will bring about one of the greatest reversals since 1892. A Democratic House is assured and from the trend of the returns the United States Senate will be a battleground between stand-pat Republicans and a combination of Democrats and insurgent Republicans.

The latter faction will have a shade the better of it and with Boss Aldrich gone on March 4, the solidarity of the stand-pat faction will have been lost.

The election of the Democratic House, which has been assured, will precipitate a fight for the speakership.

The clear path which Representative Champ Clark, the Missouri leader of the minority, had to the Speaker's chair may be blockaded. The great influx of new Democratic congressmen from the East and North may interfere with the caucus majority which Clark had recruited from the South and Southwest. The disposition of these congressmen is to discipline Representative Fitzgerald and the other Eastern Democrats who broke with them over the rules.

With Fitzgerald's faction augmented by the new Democratic congressmen from New York, Massachusetts, Maine and elsewhere it may be a bigger factor than the Clark faction anticipate. One Democratic leader, Representative Underwood of Alabama, is regarded as a factor in the speakership race, but his ambition is to be chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, a plum which can be his in exchange for the support of Clark for Speaker. Swagar Sherley, a Louisville representative, is also regarded as of speakership size, and Representative Henry of Texas has his delegation solidly behind him.

DEFEAT OF DEMOCRATS IN NEBRASKA SEEMS CERTAIN

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 9.—Chester H. Aldrich, Republican, has probably been elected Governor of Nebraska over James C. Dahlman, Democrat, by a plurality of between 5000 and 10,000. The Omaha Bee, Republican, says Aldrich is elected by at least 7000 and the Omaha World-Herald, Democrat, admits Dahlman's probable defeat.

It seems likely the entire Republican State ticket has been chosen. Few returns have been received on the congressional elections except in the Second (Omaha) District, where Lobeck, Democrat, is elected.

REPUBLICANS ARE HARD PRESSED IN ILLINOIS VOTING

BARE MAJORITY GIVEN

G. O. P. Claims Control of Next State Session; Governor's Plans Imperiled.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—Illinois voters have depleted the ranks of the jack-pot legislators, imperiled Gov. Deneen's legislative program for the next session and given to the Democrats a sweeping victory in Cook County—one of the greatest surprises of the country-wide balloting. Congressman Rodenberg, Republican, was re-elected in the southern part of the State, running far ahead of his ticket.

With pluralities ranging from 15,000 to 25,000, the Democrats captured the offices of Sheriff, County Treasurer, County Clerk and in fact every County office. The Republican president and members of the Sanitary District Board met defeat in the Democratic clean-up.

Local Significance Seen.

For the first time in its history a Democratic member was elected to the Board of Review. Local Republican leaders were staggered by the results. They had predicted the election of their entire County ticket with pluralities of from 30,000 to 45,000.

Aside from the actual conquest of County offices, the election was immensely important to the Democrats as indicating their chances of electing a Mayor in Chicago next spring.

Of the 108 Senators and Representatives who voted for William Lorimer, 52 are to be in the Legislature. Of the lost brothers, 23 were unable to persuade themselves to stand for renomination; 24 were unable to persuade their neighbors to nominate them Sept. 15.

Four House members were candidates for the Senate, two were defeated for nomination, six were defeated today. Survivors, 44, with eight holdover Senators who were not in jeopardy. Three other members are dead.

Of the bipartisan organizations in the House of Representatives, 43 were missing before the election, two of these being House members, who were nominated for the Senate. The three legislators who died were House members.

Estimates based on the same returns give the Republicans a working majority of 15 in the House and nine in the Senate, or 24 on joint ballot, thus giving assurance that if a United States Senator should have to be elected by the next General Assembly he will be a Republican.

Deneen's Program in Danger.

Whether Gov. Deneen will have enough votes to control and thus assure the carrying out of the administration legislative program, including the passage of railroad regulation bills, a corrupt practices act and bills conferring the right of initiative and referendum, remains to be determined, not only by the success of the Republicans in obtaining a majority, but of the Governor in getting the aid of that majority. The possibility that this Assembly will elect a United States senator was considered by the Governor in his campaign speeches.

Indications are that the three public policy propositions—the initiative and referendum, State civil service and corrupt practices legislation—have won by large majorities. Nearly every county reporting tonight had declared in their favor.

ALL AMENDMENTS ARE BEATEN IN CITY BY BIG MAJORITIES

Recommendation of Outer Park Project Also Is Voted Down by St. Louisans.

Excepting the prohibition amendment, the vote on which is given elsewhere, the following is the St. Louis vote on the constitutional amendments and the outer park recommendation:

Amendment No. 3, permanent public road fund: For, 30,992; against, 89,799; majority against, 58,807.

Amendment No. 4, to amend manner of amending St. Louis charter: For, 39,351; against, 81,449; majority against, 42,098.

Amendment No. 9, to increase limit of tax rate in cities: For, 23,890; against, 96,276; majority against, 71,386.

HOUSE CHANGES ALSO

Surprises in Rural Districts Which G. O. P. Considered Firm as Gibraltar.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—John A. Dix, the first Democratic nominee elected in 16 years, will be the next Governor of the State of New York. He defeated Henry L. Stimson, Col. Roosevelt's candidate, by a plurality of 65,000.

New York City gave Mr. Dix a plurality of 101,553, while the best Mr. Stimson could do was to bring down to the Bronx a plurality of less than 40,000, the exact figures of which is yet to be determined.

The Republican ticket was slaughtered all along the line, particularly in the rural districts up the State. In almost every county outside the city of New York the normal Republican majorities were either greatly reduced or swept aside. Albany County, for instance, which gave a plurality for Hughes two years ago, reversed itself yesterday and gave Mr. Dix a plurality of nearly 200.

The changes in many of the rock-ribbed Republican districts like St. Lawrence, Franklin and Chautauqua were unparalleled in the history of elections. Most of the factory and manufacturing towns, which were normally Republican, went Democratic. Dix carried Roosevelt's home county.

Successor to Depew.

The Legislature, which will choose a successor to Senator Chauncey M. Depew, is apparently safely Democratic. In the Senate there will be 27 Democrats next session as against 16 in the last, when the Republicans had 35 members.

In the Assembly the Democrats apparently have elected a safe working majority of the 150 members.

Democrats in Manhattan and the Bronx elected all their nominees for Congress and gained three seats in the national body. In the Seventeenth District Henry George Jr., Democrat, beat W. S. Bennet, Republican, by more than a thousand votes. In the Fifteenth District, Patten, Democrat, led Adam N. Bennett, Republican, by more than 3600 votes. Jefferson M. Levy, Democrat, took the measure of Herbert Parsons, Roosevelt's personal representative in the management of party affairs in the State, in the Thirteenth District, being elected by nearly 2000 plurality.

Congressmen Riordan, Goldfogel, Sulzer, Fornes, Conroy and Harrison had little trouble in holding their seats. In Brooklyn Congressman Fitzgerald was an easy victor. In the Third Brooklyn district ex-Sheriff Hobley, Republican, was beaten. As a rule the voters were closer on the other side of the bridge than in Manhattan. William M. Calder narrowly beat out Michael E. Butler in the Sixth District, and is the only Republican elected in Greater New York.

STUBBS SEEMS TO HAVE BEEN ELECTED BY SMALL MAJORITY

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 9.—Late returns this morning indicate that W. R. Stubbs, Republican, has been re-elected Governor of Kansas, but by greatly reduced figures. Against a majority two years ago of 40,000, he will have only from 5000 to 8000 this year.

All the eight Congressional districts have returned Republicans. The complete Republican State ticket has been elected, most candidates leading Stubbs.

The Legislature appears to be Democratic. Late returns confirm the defeat of J. N. Dolley, chairman of the Republican State Committee, for Representative in the Legislature. The Socialist vote was the lightest in years.

The Post-Dispatch is the only evening newspaper in St. Louis that receives or publishes news gathered by the Associated Press.

MARYLAND IS DEMOCRATIC

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 9.—That the Maryland delegation in the next House of Representatives will consist of five Democrats and one Republican is conceded late tonight by newspapers of both parties.

Thomas Parran, Republican, saved the Fifth District for his party which lost its representatives in the Third and Sixth districts.

OHIO DEMOCRATS ASK T. R. TO CALL AGAIN; ONE REPORT RESTORES THE TAFT SMILE

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 9.

DEMOCRATIC State Chairman Hugh Nichols took a slap at Theodore Roosevelt in a telegram to the Colonel reading:

"Counties in which you defamed Gov. Harmon show net gains for him of more than 25,000. Call again."

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 9.

PRESIDENT TAFT received a summary of results when he reached Pittsburg last night.

The President read that Stimson had conceded the election of Dix in New York, that Harmon had carried Hamilton County in Ohio by a large plurality, that the Democrats apparently had carried Massachusetts by 50,000, that Baldwin was winning in Connecticut and that heavy gains were being made by the Democrats in various congressional districts.

The unfavorable news was read in silence. The Taft smile was gone. At last, however, the President's face lit up and he had a good laugh, for the final dispatch read like this: "And at 5 o'clock this afternoon Pauline Wayne gave birth to a fine bull calf weighing 100 pounds."

BEVERIDGE AND KERN BOTH CONFIDENT THEY HAVE WON

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 9.—Late returns from yesterday's election changed the drift so that the Republicans were assured of a small majority in the Legislature, and that United States Senator Beveridge would be re-elected, was the declaration of Chairman Lee of the Republican State Committee at 5 o'clock this morning.

Senator Beveridge said he believed he had defeated John W. Kern (Dem.) by a small margain.

At Democratic headquarters, where also the late returns were being scanned this morning, it was still maintained that the Legislature will be Democratic by at least 12 on joint ballot and that therefore Kern would succeed Beveridge in the Senate. That the Democrats have elected their State ticket is not doubted.

The Democratic leaders, however, asserted that their figures showed a certain majority in their favor of five members of the Legislature, and it was reasonable that they would gain some in counties from which returns were not complete.

HARMON'S PLURALITY LARGEST IN OHIO DEMOCRATS' HISTORY

Returns Show That Senator Dick Will Be Succeeded by Member of Opposing Party.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 9.—The Democrats yesterday swept Ohio and, in addition to electing Judson Harmon for a second term as Governor, have undoubtedly elected the remainder of their State ticket and a majority of the Legislature. In consequence, Senator Charles Dick (Rep.) will be succeeded in 1911 by a Democrat.

Harmon's plurality over Warren G. Harding (Rep.) is in doubt this morning, but sufficient returns are in to show that it is the largest ever given by Ohio to a Democrat. The latest estimates give Harmon a margin of 60,000 over Harding.

The next Ohio congressional delegation will contain 13 and possibly 15 Democrats out of 21, as Congressmen H. P. Goebe., in the Second District, and Paul Howland, in the Twentieth, are being hard pressed by their Democratic opponents.

DEMOCRAT LIKELY TO WIN IN IDAHO GOVERNORSHIP RACE

BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 9.—The entire Republican State ticket and French (Rep.) for Congress have been elected, with the possible exception of Gov. Brady.

At 2:30 o'clock this morning, 180 precincts out of 576 in the State gave Brady 14,719, Hawley 14,309. These same precincts gave on Congressman: French (Rep.) 16,586, Bowen (Dem.) 11,320.

WEST VIRGINIA DEMOCRAT FOR SENATOR SCOTT'S PLACE

BLUEFIELD, W. Va., Nov. 9.—Col. L. E. Tierney of McDowell County has announced himself a candidate for the United States Senate to succeed Senator Nathan B. Scott, now that a Democratic Legislature in this State has been elected.

Tierney is a coal operator and a Democratic leader in the southern part of the State.

DEMOCRATS WILL TRIUMPH IN 1912, FOLK PREDICTS

All That Is Necessary Is for Congress to Keep Faith, He Believes.

When former Gov. Folk was asked Wednesday to discuss the probable effect of the results of Tuesday's elections on the presidential selection of 1912, he demurred. After protesting that he did not want to speak on the topic, he said:

"When I returned from Massachusetts Monday I gave an interview predicting the election of Foss, Democrat, as Governor, and the election of Harmon in Ohio. This opinion was based on the popular uprising I found in the East against the Aldrich-Payne tariff law and the high cost of living, which the people attributed to the high tariff. The new nationalism doctrine of Roosevelt likewise did not strike the voters favorably, as they feared it tended to an ultimate empire.

"The results show that where the Democrats made their fight on the sole issue of the high cost of living and against a monopoly tariff, they triumphed.

"If the Democratic Congress will keep faith with the people, as I believe it will, and demonstrate that it is in favor of a revision of the tariff in the interest of the consumer, the landslide of yesterday will be repeated in 1912.

"The returns so far received from Missouri outside of St. Louis, indicate a Democratic gain, and while there are not sufficient returns to make the result certain, the probabilities are that the prediction before the election, that the Democratic ticket outside of St. Louis would be elected by 35,000, will be justified."

Taft Silent on Election.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—President Taft arrived at 8:45 a. m. from Cincinnati, where he voted yesterday. He went direct to the White House. It was announced he had no statement to make regarding yesterday's election.

PENNSYLVANIA IS REPUBLICAN; TENER GETS LARGE PLURALITY

Democratic Candidate for Governor Takes Third Place, Keystone Leading Him.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 9.—It is estimated that the plurality of John K. Tener, Republican candidate for Governor, will reach 60,000 over Berry (Keystone). Grim, the Democratic candidate, is hopelessly lost. Pittsburg and Western Pennsylvania, the home of Tener, gave a majority for the native son much less than has been expected by Tener's supporters, but Philadelphia and other Eastern points made this up.

Senator Penrose stated Tener would come to Philadelphia with a plurality of 40,000, and that Philadelphia would give him 60,000 more.

The Republicans met with an unexpected defeat in the congressional fight in Philadelphia, William W. Foulkrod (Rep.) being defeated for re-election by Michael Donohue (Dem.), who was also on the Independent ticket in the Fifth Congressional District.

George W. Kipp, Democrat, probably has been elected to Congress from the Fourteenth District, defeating Congressman Charles C. Pratt by about 500 plurality. Kipp's election will make the Pennsylvania delegation stand: Republicans, 22; Democrats, 9; doubtful, 1.

John Dalzell in the Thirtieth Congressional District; James Francis Burke in the Thirty-first, and Dr. Andrew J. Barchfeld in the Thirty-second were re-elected.

Sometimes you eat too much; sometimes you drink too much; sometimes you do both. Red Raven, the pleasant tasting aperient water, puts you right.

WYOMING ELECTS DEMOCRATIC GOVERNOR; OTHERS IN DOUBT

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 9.—Returns from the State are not complete, but there seems to be no doubt of the election of former United States Senator John S. Carey, Democrat, for Governor. The count in 176 precincts out of 480 gives Carey 7264, Mullin (Rep.) 1223.

Mondell is re-elected to Congress by a largely decreased plurality. The Legislature is in doubt.

A Reader Cures His Constipation—Try It Free

Simple way for any family to retain the good health of all its members.

The editors of "Health Hints" and "Questions and Answers" have one question that is put to them more often than any other, and which, strangely enough, they find the most difficult to answer. That is "How can I cure my constipation?"

Dr. Caldwell, an eminent specialist in diseases of the stomach, liver and bowels has looked the whole field over, has practised the specialty for forty years and is convinced that the ingredients contained in what is called Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has the best claim to attention from constipated people.

Its success in the cure of stubborn constipation has done much to displace the use of salts, waters, strong cathartics and such things. Syrup Pepsin, by training the stomach and bowel muscles to again do their work naturally, and with its tonic ingredients strengthening the nerves, brings about a lasting cure. Among its strongest supporters are Mr. John Graveline of 93 Milwaukee Av., Detroit, Mich., Mr. O. A. Vernon of Oklahoma City and thousands of others. It can be obtained of any druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, or if you want to try it first, a free sample bottle can be obtained by writing the doctor.

Dr. Caldwell does not feel that the purchase of his remedy ends his obligation. He has specialised in stomach, liver and bowel diseases for over forty years and will be pleased to give the reader any advice on the subject free of charge. All are welcome to write him. Whether for the medical advice or the free sample address Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 241 Caldwell buildings, Monticello, Ill.

NOT ONLY DYSPEPSIA AND GAS BUT ALL STOMACH MISERY WILL VANISH.

Why not get some now—this moment, and forever rid yourself of Stomach trouble and Indigestion? A dieted stomach gets the blues and grumbles. Give it a good eat, then take Pape's Diapepsin to start the digestive juices working. There will be no dyspepsia or belching of Gas or eructations of undigested food; no feeling like a lump of lead in the stomach or heartburn, sick headache and dizziness, and your food will not ferment and poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin costs only 50 cents for a large case at any drug store here, and will relieve the most obstinate case of Indigestion and Upset Stomach in five minutes.

There is nothing else better to take Gas from Stomach and cleanse the stomach and intestines, and, besides, one single dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all your food the same as a sound, healthy stomach would do it.

When Dyspepsia works, your stomach rests—gets itself in order, cleans up—and then you feel like eating when you come to the table, and what you eat will do you good.

Absolute relief from all Stomach Misery is waiting for you as soon as you decide to take a little Diapepsin. Tell your druggist that you want Pape's Diapepsin, because you want to become thoroughly cured this time.

Remember, if your stomach feels out-of-order and uncomfortable now you can get relief in five minutes.—ADV.

VOTE AGAINST 10TH AMENDMENT WAS LANDSLIDE

In Some Districts There Was Not a Single Prohibition Vote.

WEST END HELPED

Many Precincts Recorded Only a Handful of Ballots for a Change.

Prohibition was swamped in St. Louis yesterday by an approximate vote of 133,318 to 7770. With two precincts out of 403 still to be heard from, the anti-prohibition majority in the city was 125,548 at noon Wednesday.

The Ninth and Tenth Wards, in which the big breweries are situated, returned the banner votes against prohibition. In the Second, Eighth and Sixteenth Precincts of the Ninth Ward not a ballot was cast for prohibition, while the anti-prohibition votes in the respective precincts were 268, 282 and 316. In the Sixth Precinct only one prohibition ballot was cast, against 363 anti-prohibition ballots. The entire anti-prohibition vote of the Ninth Ward was 4885, against only 47 prohibition ballots.

Vote in Brewery Ward.

In the Tenth Ward, which contains the Anheuser-Busch brewery, there were 5560 anti-prohibition ballots and a prohibition vote of only 68. In the Third, Seventh, Tenth and Eleventh Precincts only one vote each was cast for prohibition. The prohibition ballots were cast in the Fourth Precinct and three each in the Second and Eighth precincts.

That prohibition would be overwhelmed in the brewery wards was certain, but its emphatic repudiation in the Twenty-eighth Ward, which includes the West End district, surpassed expectations. The highest vote for prohibition in this ward was in the Sixth Precinct, the polling place of which was at 4250 Olive street. Here the anti-prohibitionists were victorious by a vote of 522 to 126.

Heaviest Prohibition Vote.

This was the largest prohibition vote cast in any precinct in the city, and exceeded the total prohibition vote cast in either the Second, Eighth, Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh, Eighteenth or Twenty-fourth Wards.

The Twelfth precinct of the Twenty-eighth Ward cast 85 votes for prohibition and 509 against it; and the Second precinct 41 for prohibition and 317 against it.

The First Precinct gave 600 anti-prohibition votes against 41 prohibition ballots; the Second, 787 to 49; the Fourth, 796 to 19, and the Tenth, 334 to 36.

In the Fourteenth Ward, a downtown district, not a prohibition vote was cast in the Fifth Precinct. In the First and Second Precincts three prohibition ballots each were cast, and in the Fourth Precinct there were only two prohibition ballots.

In the First Ward, a North End river district, only one voted out of 35 cast his ballot for prohibition, the total vote being 5157 to 150. In the Second Precinct the polling place of which was at 4822 North Broadway, only one vote was cast for prohibition against 816 against it.

In the Fifth Ward, a river district south of Market street, the anti-prohibition vote was 4634 against 210. The Sixth Precinct, the polling place of which was at 905 Market street, only four prohibition ballots were cast, out of 220 votes.

MINNESOTA REPUBLICANS WIN

Democratic Congressman Apparently Is Elected.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 9.—Minnesota Republicans yesterday elected a complete State ticket and the indications are that eight Republicans and one Democrat would be sent to Congress.

The election of Fred C. Stevens in the Fourth District is doubtful. Gov. Eberhart's plurality over James Gray (Dem.) is estimated at about 70,000.

BREAKS THE MOST STUBBORN COLD AND ENDS GRIPPE MISERY IN A FEW HOURS.

The most effective and harmless way to cure the grippe or break a severe cold, either in the head, chest, back, stomach or limbs, is a dose of Pape's Cold Compound every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken.

You will distinctly feel the cold breaking and all grippe symptoms going after the very first dose. It promptly relieves the most miserable headache, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, sore throat, running of the nose, soreness, stiffness and rheumatic aching.

Take this harmless Compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine made anywhere else in the world, which will cure your cold or end grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 25-cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world can supply.

After three years' research we have conclusively demonstrated that quinine is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippe.—ADV.

Blotches, Red Noses and Pimples May Be Quickly Banished.

It is very easy, after all, to be rid of unsightly pimples, inflamed skin, blotches, red noses, hives fever blisters and other blemishes, as a few applications of poslam, the new skin remedy will quickly banish these troubles. Being naturally flesh-colored and containing no grease, poslam cannot be detected on the face in the daytime. The actual healing and curing process is accomplished readily and without inconvenience, the skin being restored to the natural color.

Poslam can be had of any pharmacist who handles pure drugs, particularly Wolff-Wilson Drug Co. and Raboteau Drug Co. Fifty cents' worth will answer either for the minor troubles mentioned, or in curing ordinary cases of eczema, for which disease it is the accepted specific. Itching stops at once.

Anyone who will write to the Emergency Laboratories, No. 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City, can secure by mail, free of charge, a supply sufficient to show overnight results in clearing the complexion or removing pimples.

12 MEET DEATH IN SECOND DISASTER IN COLORADO MINE

Nine Are Rescued Alive and 16 Are Believed to Be Entombed.

By Associated Press.

DELAGUA, Colo., Nov. 9.—Twelve men are known to have been killed in the explosion that wrecked a portion of Mine No. 3 of the Victor American Fuel Co. here yesterday. Nine men were rescued alive and 16 still are believed to be in the mine.

Willis Evans, a young engineer, gave his life in the rescue of the four miners taken out alive last night. Evans joined the party searching the fourth north entry, equipped with oxygen helmets, that found four Slav miners, alive and unhurt.

Gives Up His Helmet.

They were 2600 feet from the surface and the passages were filled with after-damp. The rescuers feared to take the imprisoned men to the surface without helmets, and Evans and one of the other rescuers took off their helmets and gave them to two of the rescued men and waited for the return of the rescue party. When the rescuers returned, Evans had disappeared. They discovered him at 11 o'clock last night unconscious from gas. He never regained consciousness, and died at 6:45 this morning. His brother, Wallace Evans, was frantic with grief as he stood at his brother's side and sought in vain to revive him.

The fire, which is blamed for the explosion, is believed to have started in a broken entry door. The fire has been extinguished.

Five Taken Alive From Victoria Mine

DELAGUA, Col., Nov. 9.—Five more men were taken out alive from the Victoria American mine this morning.

Have You Tried?

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? We can furnish positive proof that it has made many remarkable cures after all other means had failed.

Women who are suffering with some form of female illness should consider this.

As such evidence read these two unsolicited testimonial letters. We guarantee they are genuine and honest statements of facts.

Cresson, Pa.—"Five years ago I had a bad fall, and hurt myself inwardly. I was under a doctor's care for nine weeks, and when I stopped I grew worse again. I sent for a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, took it as directed, and now I am a stout, hearty woman."—Mrs. Ella E. Aikey, Cresson, Pa.

Baird, Wash.—"A year ago I was sick with kidney and bladder troubles and female ailments. The doctors gave me up. All they could do was to just let me go as easily as possible. I was advised by my friends to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier. I am completely cured of my ills, and I am nearly sixty years old."—Mrs. Sarah Leighton, Baird, Wash.

Evidence like the above is abundant showing that the derangements of the organs which breed all kinds of miserable feelings and which ordinary practice does not cure, are the very disorders that give way to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Women who are afflicted with similar troubles, after reading two such letters as the above, should be encouraged to try this wonderfully helpful remedy.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

Electropodes

TRADE MARK—REG.

For Rheumatism and Nervousness—No Cure, No Pay.

Facts About Rheumatism

Rheumatism is caused, directly from poor circulation, but primarily from an excess of uric acid in the system. Too much uric acid irritates muscular tissues, weakens nerves and retards circulation. The result is Rheumatism, Nervousness, Kidney or Liver troubles, Neuralgia or some kindred complaint. These troubles can be cured and avoided only by eliminating the excess uric acid from the system. Electropodes will do it.

Facts About Electropodes

Electropodes are thin galvanic insoles, which radiate strength and vigor to every part of the body. They remove all poisons and impurities from the entire system, strengthen tissues, invigorate nerves, promote circulation and aid each organ to do its work promptly and properly. Results are wonderful.

One man writes from Lincoln, Neb.: "My mother had Rheumatism so bad she was unable to get out of bed without aid. This is her second pair of Electropodes, and she is now able to do her own housework."

A Los Angeles man writes: "An auditor by profession, I was in a deplorably nervous condition and suffering from cold feet, and Rheumatism in my lower limbs. Electropodes cured me. I would not be without them."

What Electropodes have done for others they can do for you. Why not give them a chance? We take all risk. Druggists are instructed to sign a binding contract to return your money if Electropodes should prove unsatisfactory.

Sold Under This Contract

The purchaser of Electropodes is granted the privilege of returning them within 10 days, and the purchase price ($1.00) is to be refunded upon the following conditions: They are to be worn according to directions for at least 25 consecutive days, and then if not satisfactory, to be returned in original box.

THRONGS WATCH ELECTION RETURNS AT POST-DISPATCH

FINE PICTURES SHOWN

Roosevelt in Aeroplane and World Championship Game Among Films.

One of the largest throngs ever gathered on Broadway witnessed the Post-Dispatch bulletins of the election returns Tuesday night. The mass of closely packed humanity extended from Chestnut street almost to Washington avenue, and overflowed into Pine and Olive streets.

Street cars wormed their way through, inch by inch. The police patrol automobile from the Central District was halted and obtained passage with difficulty. One man, in a buggy, was caught in the mass early in the evening and was held a prisoner for several hours.

The bulletins were posted in letters so large they could be read for blocks. There were two screens, one between the Post-Dispatch office and Pine street, and the other between the office and Olive street. They enabled the crowds to extend much farther north and south than ever before.

Hundreds in Windows.

Besides those in the street, hundreds of persons filled the windows in buildings opposite the Post-Dispatch, clustered on fire escapes and roofs, and even clambered upon the scaffolding in front of the new National Bank of Commerce Building.

Good humor was characteristic of the assemblage, which waited patiently until a late hour for the delayed city returns. At first, when reports of adverse votes against prohibition were posted, there was enthusiastic cheering. But as later returns revealed the completeness of the landslide, the cheers changed to laughter, which was prolonged when some precincts showed not a single prohibition ballot.

Interesting Pictures.

In the intermissions, some of the most interesting moving picture films ever exhibited in the city were thrown upon the south screen. While news came in of Roosevelt's party defeat in New York, the Colonel was shown riding in an aeroplane at the Kinloch Park aviation meet. The world's championship baseball series was shown, and also films entitled: "A Wedding Trip From Montreal Through Canada to Hongkong," and "Take Me Out to the Ball Game." About 9000 feet of films were exhibited.

WICKERSHAM NEAR ARREST ON CHARGE OF ILLEGAL VOTING

Error in Registration Verification Is Corrected in Time to Save Him From Jail.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Through an error, Attorney-General George W. Wickersham was in serious danger of arrest yesterday for illegal registration. A warrant was issued for him and was in the hands of a policeman who waited for Wickersham at the polling place. State Superintendent of Election William Leary straightened the muddle before the Attorney-General went to vote.

Wickersham was not at his home, 36 East Fifty-first street, when the verifiers of the registration lists went to look him up. He had gone to Washington. Through an error he was not credited with being in the Federal service, which gives the right to vote from the last place of residence, no matter how long the employe has been absent.

Leary found that a mistake had been made and hurried to the polling place, where he handed the waiting policeman a subpena. This enabled the policeman to depart immediately, without breaking the law, and Wickersham was saved from arrest. Later the policeman exchanged his old challenge roll for another one without the Attorney-General's name on it.

ONLY ONE VOTE IN DISTRICT; COSTS STATE $400 TO GET IT

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Not a Republican vote was cast in the Fortieth Election District of the Sixteenth Assembly District, Brooklyn, yesterday. There is only one voter there. John McGovern, who lives at 629 Eighteenth street, is the man who bears that distinction. By the time his vote was cast yesterday afternoon it had cost the State about $400 to find out just what his political preferences are. McGovern is an enrolled Democrat and voted a straight ticket.

The Fortieth Election District comprises a large slice of Prospect Park. Outside of the shelter houses, McGovern's home is the only building in the district. Hence it was necessary to use it as a voting place, for which the owner received $50. To be in keeping with the law it was necessary to keep four inspectors, two poll clerks and two ballot clerks on the job. McGovern walked into the room where the lone booth was standing about 8 o'clock. Despite the entreaties of his comrades, he refused to vote until afternoon.

FIRST POLICEMAN IS ON TRIAL FOR LOOTING FUND

He Is T. J. Dolan, Formerly of the Carr Street Station.

Timothy J. Dolan, a suspended policeman in the Carr street district, the first to be placed on trial of the men indicted for looting the treasury of the Police Relief Association, was arraigned Wednesday in Judge McQuillin's court. He is charged with embezzling $75 from the association.

The morning was spent in selecting a jury, and it was expected that the taking of testimony would begin in the afternoon. Circuit Attorney Jones conducted the prosecution, and Dolan was represented by Thomas J. Rowe Sr.

Judge Matt G. Reynolds, former president of the Police Board, occupied a seat beside Jones, but said that he would take no part in the prosecution of the case.

Of all the witnesses summoned, John M. Healy, former secretary of the association, was the only one not present when the roster of witnesses was called.

Healy Ready to Testify.

Jones said that Healy would be on hand to testify whenever he was wanted. Former Chief of Detectives Desmond was present as a character witness for Dolan.

It is charged that Dolan appropriated sick benefits paid by the association to Patrolmen James P. Gahen, Charles Gerlach and Thomas J. Finan while he was the Carr Street District's representative on the Executive Committee of the association.

The three policemen were ill and received benefits from the association. On their recovery, the Police Board voted them full pay for the period of their incapacitation. They turned the sick benefits, amounting to $75, back to Dolan to be repaid to the association.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA

A CURE FOR ALL.

Not a Patent Cure All, Nor a Modern Miracle, But Simply a Rational Cure for Dyspepsia.

In these days of humbuggery and deception, the manufacturers of patent medicines, as a rule, seem to think their medicines will not sell unless they claim that it will cure every disease under the sun. And hey never think of leaving out dyspepsia and stomach troubles. They are sure to claim that their nostrum is absolutely certain to cure every dyspeptic and he need look no further.

In the face of these absurd claims it is refreshing to note that the proprietors of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have carefully refrained from making any undue claims or false representations regarding the merits of this most excellent remedy for dyspepsia and stomach troubles. They make but one claim for it, and that is, that for indigestion and various stomach troubles Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is a radical cure. They go no farther than this, and any man or woman suffering from indigestion, chronic or nervous dyspepsia, who will give the remedy a trial will find that nothing is claimed for it but the facts will not fully sustain.

It is a modern discovery, composed of harmless vegetable ingredients acceptable to the weakest or most delicate stomach. Its great success in curing stomach troubles is due to the fact that the medicinal properties are such that it will digest whatever wholesome food is taken into the stomach, no matter whether the stomach is in good working order or not. It rests the overworked organ and replenishes the body, the blood, the nerves, creating a healthy appetite, giving refreshing sleep and the blessings which always accompany a good digestion and proper assimilation of food.

In using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets no dieting is required. Simply eat plenty of wholesome food and take these Tablets at each meal, thus assisting and resting the stomach, which rapidly regains its proper digestive power, when the Tablets will be no longer required.

Nervous Dyspepsia is simply a condition in which some portion or portions of the nervous system are not properly nourished. Good digestion invigorates the nervous system and every organ in the body.

NEW YORK POLLS WATCHED OVER BY 44 SUFFRAGISTS

Sisters in Cause Bring Workers Food; Some Work Until Midnight.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Armed with official certificates from the Republican party and protected by special orders from the Police Commissioner, 44 women took up their posts as watchers at the polls in the morning shortly before 5 o'clock. They were all suffragists, many of them being members of the Equality League of Self-Supporting Women, the votes for women organization which has made a stand against barring women from serving in this capacity on election day.

Nearly all of them remained until 9 or 10 o'clock last night, some not leaving their posts until midnight in those districts where the ballot counting was slow. On this occasion peace reigned in the Gas House district, Hell's Kitchen, the Bowery and elsewhere in the rougher quarters of the city where the women were stationed. As one of them put it, watching was flatly uninteresting.

The greatest excitement of the day was when food arrived, having been taken to each of the women by sister suffragists in an automobile.

A factor for pure food ante-dating all state and national food laws

BOTH SIDES CLAIM CONTROL OF MONTANA LEGISLATURE

Republican Congressman Pray Is Re-Elected by a Large Majority.

HELENA, Mont., Nov. 9.—Both the Republicans and Democrats claim control of the Legislature, which is to elect a successor to United States Senator Thomas H. Carter, the Democrats claiming 61 votes on joint ballot and the Republicans claiming 68. Fifty-two are necessary for a choice. Complete returns are not available for the larger counties, upon which the rival claims are based.

Congressman Pray, Republican, has been re-elected by from 3500 to 5000 plurality, as have Railroad Commissioner A. E. Morley and Clerk of the Supreme Court Athey.

RODENBERG WINS SIXTH ELECTION; IS A STAND-PAT

Victory of Illinois Republican Due to Buildings Obtained for District.

William A. Rodenberg of East St. Louis, stand-pat Republican and disciple of Speaker Cannon, was re-elected to Congress for the sixth time and by an increased majority, Tuesday, in the Twenty-second Illinois District. Rodenberg said Wednesday that he believed his district was the only one in the United States to increase its Republican majority in the 1910 election.

His opponent was Bruce A. Campbell, an East St. Louis attorney. Campbell estimates that he was defeated by 3475 votes. Rodenberg's estimate of his majority is 4950. Rodenberg carried East St. Louis two years ago by only 65 votes, and large wagers were laid that Campbell would carry the city. Instead, he lost it by 192 votes. It is estimated that $25,000 changed hands on the East St. Louis vote.

No Insurgency in District.

Rodenberg ran on a platform of the Government buildings which he was able to obtain for his district, costing more than $1,000,000.

"I attribute my victory," said Rodenberg to a Post-Dispatch reporter, "to the fact that there is no insurgency in the Twenty-second Congressional District of Illinois. I estimate my majorities as follows: St. Clair County, 1700; Madison County, 1800; Bond County, 600; Washington County, 600; and Monroe County, 250."

"All I care to say," said Campbell, "is that the voters wanted Rodenberg and not myself. I thank the Democrats for their support."

A Home-Made Remedy for All Nervous Ailments

Nerve medicines and prescriptions are usually expensive. Here is one that you can prepare at home in a few minutes, at small cost. There is really nothing better for any nervous disorder.

Make a strong tea by steeping five cents worth of Hops in a pint of boiling water, and strain it well. Put two ounces of Thargol Compound (fifty cents worth) in an eight-ounce bottle (exactly half pint), then fill it up with the Hop Tea. Try two teaspoonfuls four times daily.

This simple remedy is free from narcotics, opiates or other dangerous drugs. It soothes and strengthens the nerves without any evil effects. In sleeplessness or nervous headache it is worth its weight in gold. For "nervousness," nervous prostration, hysteria—even St. Vitus Dance—it is a splendid medicine. Costs little, but nothing better can be had at any price.

Your druggist has Thargol Comp. or will get it for you on request. If not, send to Indiana Pharmaceutical Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.—ADV.

MRS. BRAGG IS REAL STRONG

In a Personal Letter, She Tells How Women May Increase Strength and Endurance.

"I feel so much better than I ever did in my life," writes Mrs. Charles Bragg, 1517 Cornell Avenue. "I have been real strong since I began to use Cardui. Tongue cannot tell how much Cardui has done for me. I can do a full day's work now without getting tired and having to stop and lay down every few minutes. It seems to me that there is nothing to equal Cardui as a tonic and strengthening medicine."—Indianapolis, Ind.

Women who do hard work of any kind, whether in stores, factories, or at home, often lose strength and energy, and soon feel, and look, prematurely old.

To keep young, when you begin to feel tired and unable to do your work, you should try a good strengthening tonic. You will find in Cardui a friend in need.

50 years of success, and thousands of letters like the above from Mrs. Bragg, surely prove that the best remedy in the world for women is Cardui, the woman's tonic.

All druggists sell and recommend Cardui.

It will help you.

Try it.

ARE YOUR KIDNEYS WEAK?

Thousands of Men and Women Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

Nature warns you when the track of health is not clear. Kidney and bladder trouble compel you to pass water often through the day and get up many times during the night.

Unhealthy kidneys cause lumbago, rheumatism, catarrh of the bladder, pain or dull ache in the back, joints or muscles, at times have headache or indigestion, as time passes you may have a sallow complexion, puffy or dark circles under the eyes, sometimes feel as though you had heart trouble, may have plenty of ambition but no strength, get weak and lose flesh.

If such conditions are permitted to continue, serious results are sure to follow; Bright's disease, the very worst form of kidney trouble, may steal upon you.

Prevalency of Kidney Disease.

Most people do not realize the alarming increase and remarkable prevalency of kidney disease. While kidney disorders are the most common diseases that prevail, they are almost the last recognized by patient and physicians, who usually content themselves with doctoring the effects, while the original disease constantly undermines the system.

A Trial Will Convince Anyone.

If you feel that your kidneys are the cause of your sickness or run down condition, commence taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy, because as soon as your kidneys begin to improve, they will help the other organs to health. In taking Swamp-Root, you afford natural help to Nature for Swamp-Root is a gentle healing herbal compound—a physician's prescription for a specific disease.

You cannot get rid of your aches and pains if your kidneys are out of order. You cannot feel right when your kidneys are wrong.

Swamp-Root is Pleasant to Take.

If you are already convinced that Swamp-Root is what you need, you can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one dollar size bottles at all drug stores. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., which you will find on every bottle.

Swamp-Root is always kept up to its high standard of purity and excellence. A sworn certificate of purity with every bottle.

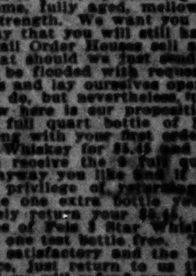

SAMPLE BOTTLE FREE—To prove the wonderful merits of Swamp-Root you may have a sample bottle and a book of valuable information, both sent absolutely free by mail. The book contains many of the thousands of letters received from men and women who found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy they needed. The value and success of Swamp-Root is so well known that readers are advised to send for a sample bottle. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure to say you read this generous offer in the St. Louis Daily Post-Dispatch. The genuineness of this offer is guaranteed.

The Sunday Post-Dispatch has over ONE-HALF MILLION more readers than any other newspaper west of the Mississippi. "First in Everything."

We Prepay Express Charges

1 Full Quart Whiskey FREE

TRY IT AT OUR EXPENSE.

There are all sorts of claims for superiority among distillers and Mail Order Whiskey Houses, and while we feel sure that our Fels 3 Star Whiskey can't be beat, or even equaled in quality, or price, still we are not going to ask anyone to risk their money on our judgment; therefore we are going to give absolutely free, one full quart bottle to test. We want you to prove by drinking it that Fels 3 Star Whiskey is pure, wholesome, fully aged, mellow as can be and above all has real whiskey strength. We want you to add half water to it if you like and we say that you will still have stronger and better whiskey than most Mail Order Houses sell at our price. Anyone can easily understand that should we just send out bottles of whiskey free that we would be flooded with requests by some unscrupulous people and dealers and lay ourselves open to a fearful onslaught. This we cannot do, but nevertheless, the bottle is free to honest people. Now here is our proposition:

We will send you one full quart bottle of Fels 3 Star Whiskey absolutely free, along with your first order for 4 full quart bottles of Fels 3 Star Whiskey for $3.45 and we pay the express charges. After you receive the 5 full quart bottles, open one of them, test it anyway you like and if not entirely satisfactory, you have the privilege of returning to us the remaining 4 bottles and the one extra bottle you may keep free and we will immediately return your $3.45. Or send us $2.95 for 4 full quart bottles of Fels 3 Star Whiskey, express prepaid, and we will include one test bottle free. Test the free bottle and if not absolutely satisfactory and the best whiskey you ever tasted at any price, just return to us the 4 bottles and keep the free bottle and we will refund your $2.95 without question or argument. With each order we give a free Gold Tipped Glass and Patent Corkscrew. Remember, we pay we pay the express charges; look close before you permit some of the low prices of Mail Order Houses to get your order and make you pay the express charges.

We mean to prove superiority in the whiskey business; we mean to prove at our expense, by giving a free test bottle, that Fels 3 Star Whiskey has no equal. Our quart bottles are full 32-ounce quarts and not short quarts and we guarantee every statement we make and back them with our paid up capital of $400,000.00. If you want real whiskey and not weak, watery concoctions, send us your remittance on our free test proposition. The taste is the test, that will prove more than we can write. Address orders and letters and make remittances payable to A. Fels, Mgr., or

PROPOSITION FOR OUTER PARK CIRCLE DEFEATED

The election returns show the defeat, by nearly a two to one vote, of the proposition to incorporate a public reservation district for an outer park circle. In 318 of the city precincts, the vote on this proposition was: Yes, 38,581; No, 53,501.

The opposition to the proposal, which appeared on the regular candidates' ballot, was partly due to the general antagonism to all yes-and-no propositions in the city.

An Important Letter to Millions of Catarrh Sufferers

How the Most Stubborn Cases Can be Quickly Cured.

If used properly everyone knows that HYOMEI (pronounce it High-o-me) when breathed through the inhaler will cure any ordinary case of catarrh.

But in stubborn, deep-seated cases hundreds have found that the HYOMEI vapor treatment in conjunction with the inhaler never fails.

The treatment is very simple and only takes five minutes of your time before going to bed.

Pour a teaspoonful of HYOMEI into a bowl of boiling water, cover head and bowl with towel and breathe for several minutes the vapor that arises.

You will be surprised at the result of this treatment; it makes the head feel fine and clear; you will sleep better and that stuffed-up feeling in the head will gradually disappear.

But, remember, that besides the vapor treatment the inhaler should be used daily as directed.

The HYOMEI vapor treatment will break up a cold in the head or chest in one night and give immediate relief.

HYOMEI is guaranteed to cure catarrh, asthma, colds, coughs, sore throat and croup, or money back. It is sold by druggists everywhere. A bottle of HYOMEI costs 50 cents. If you want the complete outfit, which includes the little hard rubber pocket inhaler and a bottle of HYOMEI, the price is $1.00.

No stomach dosing; just breathe HYOMEI and cure catarrh and all diseases of the breathing organs. Free trial bottle by addressing Booth's Hyomei Co., Buffalo, N. Y., who also fill mail orders.

COME "THE JOLLY BACHELORS" NEXT TO NEW SHUBERT

Dixey in "The Naked Truth," Garrick, Rose Stahl at the Century.

NO CHANGE, OLYMPIC

"The Newlyweds" Remain at American, "Happy Hooligan" Imperial Bill.

"The Jolly Bachelors," the second of the big Lew Fields musical comedy offerings of the present season, comes to the Sam S. Shubert Theater for a two weeks' engagement opening next Sunday night. Jovial Stella Mayhew heads its cast, which also includes Lucy Weston, the English beauty; Al Leach, Billie Taylor, Harold Crane, Nat Fields, Roy Atwell, Norman Tharp, Florence Topham and Maud Gray.

"The Midnight Sons" is now in its second Shubert week.

Henry E. Dixey, in the sparkling London comedy success, "The Naked Truth," begins a week's engagement at the Garrick next Sunday evening. The play's amusing story is said to give an audience three hours of wholesome laughter, with Dixey in an especially congenial role. Among others in his supporting company are Kenneth Davenport, a former St. Louisan; Herbert Standing, Marie Nordstrom, Ruth Shepley, Spottiswood Aitken, Isabel West and Dorothy Davies.

Dustin Farnum in "Cameo Kirby" is this week's offering.

Rose Stahl's farewell engagement in "The Chorus Lady" will be made at the Century next week, opening Sunday evening. This James Forbes comedy of theatrical life has been one of the most successful of its generation and the Patricia O'Brien of Miss Stahl's playing has become a stage classic. Practically the same cast as last season will be in the star's support.

"The Girl in the Taxi" is at the Century this week.

"The Dollar Princess" begins the second week of its Olympic engagement next Sunday evening, promising to set a new record for box office receipts at this house. It is a big, beautiful and exceedingly tuneful musical comedy, presented by a company headed by Donald Brien the original Prince Danilo of "The Merry Widow."

"The Newlyweds and Their Baby," the diverting musical comedy based on George McManus' cartoons in the St. Louis Post-Dispatch and New York World, will begin the second week of its engagement at the American with next Sunday's matinee. On Wednesday, after the matinee, Mr. and Mrs. Newlywed, "Snookums" and the Bear will hold a reception on the stage. Special "Newlywed" marshmallow souvenirs will be presented to ladies and children.

Carrie de Mar, international comedienne, fresh from London and New York triumphs, will head the Columbia's bill next week, singing her latest song successes. Other features are the Five Olympiers, a European art novelty; Hayward and Hayward, in "Holding Out;" Lee Lloyd, in character songs, with Jay Roberts at the piano; Joseph Callahan, in "Leaves from Pages of History," character impersonations; Elsie Fay, Miller and Weston, in costume songs and dances; Barnes and Barron, Hebrew comedians; Jules and Otto Viola, and the kinodrome.

Consul, the famous William Morris monkey, in the greatest of all trained animal acts, seen in St. Louis but once before, will be the top-liner on the Princess bill next week. He is almost human in intelligence and does many wonderful things. Other features are Lee Tong Foo, a Chinese baritone, the only singer of his race on the American stage; Kara, the cleverest juggler that ever hailed from Japan; the Musical McLarens, five in number and very gifted; Tom and Stacie Moore, in a hilariously funny sketch, and at least three other high-class William Morris acts.

"The Holdup," an intensely dramatic Southwestern playlet, is this week's star feature.

"Happy Hooligan," the side-splitting musical comedy success, comes to the Imperial for the week, opening with next Sunday's matinee. It is rich in clever comedy, catchy songs, pretty girls in beautiful gowns, and will be given an ambitious scenic production.

"Three Weeks" is the current attraction.

The German stock company's supplemental season at Strassberger Hall, Grand and Shenandoah avenues, opens this evening with the comedy, "Vater und Sohn" ("Father and Son"), by Gustav Essmann, a Danish playwright and dramatic prizewinner. Next Sunday night at the Odeon the German players will present "Onkel Braesig," a dramatization of Fritz Reuter's world-famous story, "Ut mine Stromtid," the offering being made in honor of Reuter's centennial birthday anniversary.

"Tony, the Bootblack," a thrilling melodrama, will be presented by the stock company at Havlin's next week, opening Sunday afternoon. It tells an exciting story of the abduction of a banker's daughter by members of the Black Hand society.

"The Clansman" is this week's attraction.

The Miss New York Jr. Company will begin a week's engagement at the Standard with next Sunday's matinee. The bill includes "Paying the Penalty," a one-act play of Parisian slum life; La Belle Fuda, in startling dances, and a clever vaudeville ollo. Pearl Black, a statuesque beauty, heads the company.

The Passing Parade is now at this house.

Al Reeves' Big Beauty Show comes to the Gayety for the week opening next Sunday afternoon. Al Reeves himself heads the bill, with other good comedians, such as William Cahill and Edwin Morris, and bright and tuneful musical comedy and entertaining vaudeville will be offered.

Clark's Runaway Girls are this week's attraction.

The Plaza is offering pleasing vaudeville and motion pictures this week.

The Berinis' Operatic Singers, headed by Mr. and Mrs. Jules Berinis, will be the Colonial's topliners next week. Other features are Irene Russell, singer and dancer; Estelle Wordette and company, in a comedy sketch; the Angell Sisters, singers and dancers; Taylor and Bailey, vocalists and instrumentalists, and the Colonialscope pictures.

The Burton Holmes travelogue season closes with "Two Ways Around the World" at the Odeon on Thursday afternoon at 4 and evening at 8:15. Beautiful colored views and motion pictures will be shown.

ROCKEFELLER DID NOT VOTE

Neither Oil Magnate Nor His Son Cast a Ballot.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Neither John D. Rockefeller nor his son, John D. Jr., voted yesterday. Late in the afternoon, when they had not appeared at their polling place on Sixth avenue, a squad of Democratic and Republican workers started out to find them. At the homes of the two financiers the workers found that both were out of town and would not vote.

William Rockefeller, however, did vote, casting his ballot immediately after Senator Chauncey M. Depew. Both marked their ballots quickly.

MASHER KNOCKS GIRL DOWN AND THEN KICKS HER

Accosts Three on the Street and One of Them Slaps His Face.

A masher, after his face had been slapped by one of four young women whom he accosted at Garrison avenue and Locust street Tuesday night, felled Miss Nellie Brewer of 3032 Locust street and kicked her in the back. Miss Brewer's companions went to her aid, and only the sprinting ability of the masher saved him from a drubbing.

Miss Brewer is 24 years old. She was on her way home at 10:15 p. m., with Blanche Young of 3142 Locust street, Lulu Hampton of 3032 Locust street and Tilly Donnelly of 3008 Locust street. When the man accosted them, the young women attempted to continue their journey without paying attention to him, but he was persistent. He invited Miss Brewer to take an automobile ride.

"Take that," she said, as she slapped the stranger's face.

The man then struck Miss Brewer in the face and when she fell he kicked her in the side and back. The Misses Young, Hampton and Donnelly attacked the masher, while Miss Brewer screamed hysterically; they used their fists.

A policeman ran to the scene, but the masher had fled.

ESKIMOS DECLARE COOK WAS NEVER NEAR NORTH POLE

MAP IS CALLED FALSE

Information Gleaned by Explorer Rasmussen Is Given to Public.

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—Dr. Frederick A. Cook was further discredited in a cable dispatch to the Chicago Daily News yesterday, from its correspondent in Copenhagen, Denmark. The story was the first publication of the report of Knud Rassmussen, the Danish explorer, as sent by him to his wife in Copenhagen and now given out by her.

Contained in the story is what purports to be the statements of Cook's two Eskimo companions in the polar quest, Itukusuk and Apilak, in which they confirm Commander Robert E. Peary's charge that Cook traveled in a circle and never even approached the pole. Rassmussen in the story is quoted as saying he himself did not interview the men, but that their statements were taken by the Rev. Gustav Olsen and Kateket Sechmann Rosebach, missionaries born in Greenland and at the time of obtaining the statements, working in the country from which Cook claimed to have started for the pole.

Text of the Dispatch.

The dispatch to the Daily News says:

"Already in 1909, when I was on an expedition to Greenland," writes Rassmussen, "there existed grave doubts as to whether Dr. Cook really had reached the pole, so I determined to find out from his two Eskimo companions. I obtained their statements through the missionaries."

This is the story of the Eskimos, as given in the dispatch:

"We traveled from Annatook with eight sledges in company with Dr. Cook, at the first sunshine (February). From there to Ellesmere we slept only once on the ice. It took four days to cross Ellesmere land. Eighteen days out our companions left us. We then had gone only about twelve English miles from land.

"The ice was fine, and there was no reason to stop, for anyone who wanted to go on could do so. The nineteenth day Dr. Cook took observations with an instrument he held in his hand, and we then changed our course westward.

"We left here a lot of food for men and dogs and one of us (Itukusuk) went ahead to examine the ice. We reported it in good shape, which it was, but Dr. Cook looked at it and said it was bad.

"On the way back we stopped at open water near the land. We stopped one day and went over to Ringmas Island before the snow had melted (April). We had not had the least fog on the ice. At this time, the sun was just below the horizon at night. It was the month when it does not get dark (March). Later, when near Axel Heiberg Land, we passed two days in a fog.

Cook Draws a Map.

"One day I (Apilak) came upon Dr. Cook sitting down and drawing a map. I looked at it and asked him:

"'Whose route are you drawing?'

"'My own,' replied Dr. Cook.

"But that was a lie, because he drew the map a long way out at sea, where we never had been.

"We continued to shoot bears on the ice till we had enough for the dogs. We do not know how many nights we slept on this part of the journey. The small rivers had only begun to break when we reached Hellsgate.

"Here, as Dr. Cook directed us, we left our dogs behind us, although they were fat from the meat of bears. We crossed the great sound and had to push our boat along the ice. Dr. Cook said:

"'We will reach human beings (Baffins Land) within two days.'"

"We had slept twice when he looked ahead and said he saw a tent, but it was only a stone. We kept hunting for human beings a long time. Then we came to an island on which elder birds were nesting. We followed the land past Cape Sparbo and when our provisions were nearly gone we returned toward Cape Seddon, where we arranged for wintering.

"It was yet twilight the whole night and we built a house of peat and stone, just as we do at home. We sought walrus, musk ox and bear for the winter. With the bow we killed only two hares. We had a gun to kill musk ox and bear with. It was a fine autumn and we had good provision for the winter.

During the dark time we were inside most of the time, making clothes, and Dr. Cook wrote all the time. At first sight we started. We pushed the sledge ahead of us and much target practice at seals until we had only four cartridges left. Not before we were near Annatook did we leave the sledge. The sun then staid in the sky at night.

Says They Were Swindled.

"Dr. Cook during the journey promised us a good reward, but he proved himself a liar and swindled us out of the payment. We did not get the guns he promised us. These he sold for fox skins. He gave us only a knife and some matches and a useless boat.

"This is all we, Itukusuk and Apilak, have to tell of our journey with the great Dr. Cook."

To this Rasmussen adds:

"I regard the report as absolutely authentic. According to what is known, Dr. Cook said nothing of the pole while with his two companions, and when he left them and began to tell of 'finding the pole,' his new companions believed, as they could not conceive a man prevaricating about so great a thing. The map drawn by Itukusuk is remarkably well done."

STEAMER AND 38 MEN ARE LOST IN TROPICAL STORM

Owners Abandon Hope of Saving the Arkadia, Bound for Porto Rico.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Officials of the New York and Porto Rico Steamship Co. admitted today that the missing steamship Arkadia had been given up for lost. She left New Orleans on Oct. 11 for San Juan, Porto Rico. Since the day she left the Delta, nothing has been seen or heard of her.

She was commanded by Capt. Griffiths and manned by a crew of 34, most of whom were natives of San Juan and the Island of Porto Rico. She also carried four passengers, said to have been men bound for work on the Guanica Central, the largest sugar plantation on the island.

The steamer, built at Stockton, England, in 1898, was purchased by the United States Government for a transport in the Spanish War and immediately afterwards passed to the Porto Rico line. She is believed to have been another victim of the tropical hurricane which wrecked several vessels off the coast of Cuba in mid-October.

Conquered Previous Storm.

The Arkadia was loaded with 7700 bags of flour, 2200 packages of rice, 7500 bundles of box shoes, 634 barrels of pork, 550 barrels of fertilizer, 1200 packages of building material and 300 packages of general merchandise.

In February, 1909, when Capt. Griffiths was ordered, because of heavy shipments of sugar, to make a special trip from New Orleans to New York with 20,000 sacks, she was struck by a storm off Hatteras, which almost sent her to the bottom. It was a two days' fight, in which the ship was finally saved by careful handling.

The Arkadia came out of the contest badly scarred and battered. Water, piling in great pyramids, threatened to engulf her. The crew battled night and day and for 48 hours Capt. Griffiths never left the bridge. Her superstructure excepted, she was for the two days practically submerged. She was berthed near the foot of Van Brunt street, Brooklyn, with her deck house doors burst in, extra steering gear box smashed and damaged forward.

WIFE COULD NOT SWEAR AS HUSBAND PARALYZED HER ARM

Judge Pollard Orders Policeman to Apply for a Warrant for Assault.

When Judge Pollard, Wednesday, asked that witnesses be sworn in the case of Walter Amielak, charged with disturbing the peace of his wife, Lena Amielak, all raised their right hands except her.

"Why don't you raise your right hand?" the Court asked her.

"I can't," she said. "My ribs are fractured and my right arm is paralyzed. That's what my husband did when he disturbed my peace."

Judge Pollard ordered the policeman in the case to apply to the Prosecuting Attorney for a warrant charging assault and battery. Amielak and his wife live at 1820 North Garrison avenue.

care of yourself. This is generally the first symptom of some organic derangement and often the fault of indigestion. If not corrected, "off color" is followed by blemishes, lassitude, dull eyes, heavy head, bad breath and the symptoms all are familiar with, who have a disorganized stomach. The whole system soon gets out of gear, incapacitating one for either pleasure or work. The backache, nervous spells, impoverishment of the strength and blood are easily encouraged and developed unless something is done to restore and invigorate. The world's greatest remedy will correct this condition. The first act is to assist the stomach and liver, enabling nourishing food to digest and become assimilated by the body, to restore the nerves and blood to proper order. Energy and vitality dispel lassitude—rich, red blood courses through the veins and soon shows itself in the whole body. The eye becomes clear and keen and the brain vigorous. If you take Beecham's Pills good health will be established and

A LIFETIME OF DISFIGUREMENT

Mothers Should Realize What Neglect of Skin Troubles May Mean to Children.

A lifetime of disfigurement and suffering often results from the neglect, in infancy or childhood, of minor affections of the skin and scalp. A mother overlooks a little rash or attempts some simple treatment, and in a day, perhaps, the little one is covered with severe eczema or other distressing eruption. Then the struggle for a cure begins.

A multitude of remedies are tried, doctor after doctor consulted and hospitals visited, but too often the suffering extends, without substantial relief, from days to weeks, weeks to months and months to years. Added to this is the ever-present fear that the itching, burning and disfiguration will become chronic, marring future welfare and making life miserable.

In the prevention of the simple skin affections from which all this suffering so often arises, and in establishing a condition of skin health, mothers are assured that nothing is purer, sweeter or more effective than Cuticura soap, assisted by Cuticura ointment. And greater still, if possible, is the success of these simple household remedies in the treatment of the severer skin troubles themselves. With the first warm bath with Cuticura soap and gentle application of Cuticura ointment, the itching and burning usually cease, the child falls into a refreshing sleep, the mother rests and for the first time, possibly, in many weeks peace falls on a distracted household. Frequently a single cake of Cuticura soap and box of Cuticura ointment are sufficient.

BYRNE RAPIDLY IMPROVES, AFTER THIRD OPERATION

St. Louis Boy Will Be Well by End of Week, Is Latest.

HOWELL GETS OFFER

Former Brownie Says He Has Several Chances to Return to Game.

Bobby Byrne, the St. Louis boy whose sensational work at third base for the Pirates of Pittsburg during the 1910 season stamps him as the best guardian of the far corner in the National League, is still laid up at his home in North St. Louis. Byrne has an attack of blood poisoning and has been operated on three times, the last recently.

A bruise in sliding to a base in the latter part of the season caused all the trouble. At the time Byrne injured himself he paid little attention to the scratch. After the season ended he returned to St. Louis and was about, apparently in the best of health. Recently the wound became festered and Byrne was forced to take to his bed.

Byrne is recovering, but it will be a week at least before the former Cardinal will be able to be up and about again. The doctor says he'll be all right for diamond work next season.

Ed Koney Is Back Home.

Ed Koney, the Cardinals' popular first baseman, has just returned from a fishing trip in La Crosse, Wis., his former home and the place where John J. McCloskey, then manager of the Cardinals, dug up the big fellow. Koney reports that he had good fortune with his hook and line.

"Big Ed" was selected as the first baseman of the All-Nationals for D. A. Fletcher's proposed series with the All-Americans in Kansas City. The games were to have been played last week, but Fletcher was unable to hold his stars together. Koney was one of the few players originally named who stood by the Cincinnati promoter until the very end.

Steve Evans, the comedian-right fielder of the Cardinals, was expected to be a member of Koney's fishing party up North, but declined to go at the last minute. According to Koney, Steve returned to his home in Cleveland immediately after the close of the season to compete in a series of semi-professional games in the Forest City.

Howell to Pitch Again.

Harry Howell, the former Brown pitcher and scout, expects to re-enter the game next season. Since Howell was released as scout by President Hedges of the Browns, he has been lingering in St. Louis. He says he has several offers to again appear on the diamond next season, but is holding off awhile before accepting any.

Howell says he believes his arm is "coming back." The former spitball star claims the member is getting stronger, and he is hopeful that he will be able to fool the big League batters next season. Howell threw the "wing" out while on the training trip with the Browns in 1909.

He soon will depart on a hunting trip that will keep him away most of the winter. While in the woods Harry hopes to learn if his arm is still as strong as ever.

DUKE ROGER IS IN TOWN; CARDINALS WITHOUT CAMP

Manager Roger Bresnahan of the Cardinals is paying St. Louis a visit. The Duke says his call has no baseball connection; that he has forgotten about the game since the season closed and will not let the pastime worry him until the annual National League meeting in December.

Because of a fire which recently destroyed the Elms Hotel in Excelsior Springs, Mo., the 1911 training camp of the Cardinals is in doubt, according to Bresnahan. It was expected that the Cardinals would train in Excelsior Springs, but now that they will be unable to put up at the Elms Hotel, a new camp will have to be selected. According to Bresnahan, he has no idea where that will be.

M'CLOSKEY SEEKS PLAYERS FOR NEW UNION LEAGUE

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 9.—John McCloskey of this city, late manager of the Milwaukee club, intends to obtain about 40 ball players from the association cities and Chicago for the new Union League of Montana and Utah, which he is promoting.

McCloskey holds the Butte franchise. The other cities are: Great Falls, Helena and Missoula, Mont., and Salt Lake City and Ogden, Utah.

Coast Phenom Gets Release.

SAN FRANCISCOO, Nov. 9.—Manager Danny Long of the local Coast League team, has announced that he has released Fred Walker, the mysterious pitcher who promised to set the coast on fire, but whose marvelous pitching was limited to a few performances.

Burke Defeats McKinnon.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 9.—Sailor Burke of Brooklyn was given the award over Bill McKinnon in their 12-round bout at the Armory A. A., last night. Frank Klaus of Pittsburg was to have been Burke's opponent, but he was indisposed.

Portland Gets Coast Pennant.

This is how the teams of the Pacific Coast League finished the season: Portland, Oakland, San Francisco, Vernon, Los Angeles and Sacramento sixth.

WRAY'S COLUMN

IT'S a queer law that won't work both ways, they say; but the State boxing law doesn't seem to apply to both Kansas City and St. Louis.

With Robert L. Hedges on a still hunt for a manager, and "Bobby" Wallace ready and willing to accept, it appears that something ought to "Bob" up in the way of baseball "info."

Jeff Clark, the unknown, who meets Sam Langford at Joplin, Nov. 11, says he is the hero of 24 battles which he won. He adds that they were not booze fights, either. But then no one ever beat John Barleycorn.

Hugo Kelly, former middleweight champion, put his head out the door, the other morning, and looked over the middleweight map. Finding Stanley Ketchel dead and Billy Papke over in Australia, Mr. Kelly decided he was ready to "come back."

Whenever the "Ilinois Thunderbolt" returns to this country from the antipodes Kelly, whose voting name is somewhat nearer Ginnocchio than his nom de guerre, will go back to the occupation of putting Italian wickerwork around American chianti. For Hugo is through batting .300 as a jabber.

Nobody Wants the Honor.

IN that army of Yale "grads" now engaged in trying to tie together the Yale eleven each seems so utterly self-effacing and modest. Each wants the other to have the title of head coach. It looks like Ted Coy will be the "goat" selected.

About the only members of the world's series clubs who have not gone on the stage or has not been offered the opportunity, are the bat boys.

Does It Sound Probable?

CONNIE MACK came closer to losing his temper than ever since he started in baseball when a Post-Dispatch reporter once asked him if he really paid $12,500 for "Lefty" Russell.

Connie, you know, is ordinarily not scattering the doubloons around with a Coal Oil Johnny-like abandon. When Mr. McGillicuddy officially releases the ironmen, believe me, the pressure is about forty atmospheres, assisted by absolute necessity.

But Connie was indignant at the query, and reported that the deal was as given out—$12,500 for "Lefty." Great, for Lefty! But what of those other new men, Cornelius? The Philadelphia American League club spent $15,000 for new men. In other words, of the eight purchased, Connie got seven for $2500. About $350 each as a purchase price is getting them from Class Z.

Seven for $2500 is about the ordinary average for Mr. Mack, though, his intimates say.

He is as wise in his selection of men as he is in his baseball tactics. The old fox has brought out many great men obtained for a song. It was this faculty of his that led everyone to crack the incredulous giggle when the $12 500 story was first broached.

Knowing the history of Cornelius, if he paid this sum for "Lefty," that young gentleman will prove the greatest pitcher the world ever knew.

It's worth a good bet, too.

Solid Ivory Tactics.

WHY any owner wants to rub the feathers of a .340 hitter the wrong way for the sake of $200 a year, is more than anyone in the baseball world can understand. But your Uncle Horace of Philadelphia thinks he ought to shave the salary of Sherwood Magee a couple of centuries. Horace, is it all solid, from ear to ear?

Whiter Than Snow.

ST. LOUIS U.'s stand in favor of cleaner athletics has at last brought about results worth the name. The team of Bender that was sent against Missouri was spotless in the matter of eligibility of its men. On the side lines were two of the best players in the squad kept out by the agreement. The institution has proved to outsiders that it could get rid of the Ackerism that tainted the establishment. Henceforth "Doc" Todd and his associates will get the glad hand throughout the State and college teams will feel confident of meeting college men, and not Bachelors of Science, at the game of football.

Next season the eleven will not have to suffer so severely as this year, for all the freshmen of the present season will be available as eligibles.

In the Dark Ages.

THE change marks the sloughing of the last vestige of that reputation which kept this city beknighted as to real football for so many years, notwithstanding it boasted two of the best universities in the West. There was a time when Washington sent football teams to the field, the members of which divided the gate money; when the right end did not even know the right tackle's name. There was a time when men were imported by more than one institution we could name; and we could add the names of the players, besides, who were willing to combine football with a chance to get a free education. There were times when football games were free fights, only prevented from merging into riots by police.

Those were the middle ages. And it is only now that the renaissance of the city in this respect is completed.

A bad name has hanged many a dog, long after he has repented; and for several years St. Louis University has suffered, as a result of its medieval reputation, outside the city. The Missouri game put on the final coat of whitewash. Once again we are spotless.

TIGERS ANNIHILATE SCRUBS, SCORING SIX TOUCHDOWNS

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 9.—The last hard scrimmage in practice for the Tigers was held yesterday, and the men showed they are about ready to give Eli a big reception here next Saturday. The team lined up against the strong scrub, which was unable to stem the rush of the varsity.

Six times the scrubs suffered their goal to be crossed, and six times the toe of Pendleton sent the pigskin sailing across the bars. On one occasion Pendleton made a run of 60 yards.

The practice was highly satisfactory to the thousand undergraduates, who had paraded to the field to cheer the team. The squad with the coaches and Trainer Fitzpatrick leaves tonight for Lakewood, N. J., where they will remain until Friday night, putting on the finishing touches.

WESTERN ROWING CLUB IS LOOKING FOR NEW COACH

Fred Plaisted, for three years coach of the Western Rowing Club, is no longer connected with that organization, his contract having run out. The Westerns are looking for an oarsman of note to replace him, but have as yet no one in view.

QUERIES AND ANSWERS

A. Wickerham—Letter addressed to Eddie Randall, care Missouri Athletic Club, will be forwarded to John Barrett.

Alley—D. J. Sweeney, 710 Pine street, secretary of City Bowling Association.

MOTOR BOATS TO RACE FROM CHICAGO TO NEW ORLEANS

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—Two motor boats will be started from here today in a race to New Orleans, by way of the Chicago River, the drainage canal, the Illinois and Mississippi rivers.

The race is between Joseph Hessler and Paul Wiese, both of Green Bay, Wis., on a wager of $2000.

The former's boat is the H. B. D., of 25-horsepower, and Wiese's craft is the Wehenita, of 22-horsepower.

Capt. Podd of Mobile, Ala., in the Ethel A. Ward, a 75-foot launch, will act as pacemaker and pilot to New Orleans, then will go on to Mobile.

YALE SHAKE-UP BEARS FRUIT IN TEAM'S PRACTICE

Old Eli Eleven for First Time Satisfies Coaches in Workout.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 8.—The rain and sleet which covered Yale field with over an inch of slush did not prevent the whole varsity squad from holding an hour and a half of hard practice yesterday, the coaches acting on the opinion that the Saturday of the Princeton or Harvard game might be a bad day and they should get used to a slippery field. Two years ago, the last time a Yale team went down to Princeton, the field was covered with snow and slush.

There was an hour and a half of secret practice, but from the looks of the men when they came off the field there were no injuries. It was said that there had been a scrimmage and that the practice was satisfactory to the coaches. The coaches included Tom Shevlin, Frank Hinkey, Jim Rodgers, Burr Chamberlain, Foster Sanford, Frank Butterworth, Ted Coy, Harry Holt, Harry Vaughan and several others.

Change in Line-Up Helps.

The coaches say that the change of Howe from fullback to quarterback is working well and that the change will be permanent. There is a question as to whether Reilly will be able to hold down the position of fullback, and it will be a close race between him and Baker for the position.

In spite of the story that, because of the poor record of the Yale team this year, there would be many unoccupied seats at the Yale-Harvard game this year, the ticket office announced today that all late applications would be returned, freshmen in all departments cut down to one seat apiece, and with all this, there are 1200 more applications than there are seats, which must be settled in some way. The probable result will be drawn by lots from among the graduate applications, with much resultant "soreness," but it is the best that the management could do.

Harvard has asked for 15,000 seats, the largest number ever asked for, leaving only 18,000 for Yale. Both Yale and Harvard have cut out all the borrowed applications. There are still plenty of tickets here for the Yale-Princeton game.

REDSKINS WORKING HARD TO DEFEAT NAVY ELEVEN

CARLISLE, Pa., Nov. 9.—Downright serious work was the lot of the Carlisle Indians in their practice yesterday. The redskins are bending all efforts towards shaping themselves for the Annapolis game on Saturday, as they expect the Navy will have trimmed its sails to meet any possible Indian trick. Coach Warner gave a short blackboard talk in the cage to his braves and opened practice drill with the usual fundamentals.

Kicking by Dupuis, Neuwashe and Howell was an early feature of the work and it was apparent that the Indians were tackling in much better style than they done at any time this season. The transfer of Bracklin to the halfback position hitherto filled by Dupis is proving to be a good change.

Dupuis has been changing off with Newashe at fullback. A long signal drill, and a scrimmage between the second team and the substitutes closed the evening's work.

Hueston Again Seeks Title.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Thomas A. Hueston, former pool and three-cushion champion, will attempt to regain the latter title by challenging the winner of the Alfredo de Oro-John Daly match here next month.

King Cole Keeping in Trim.

King Cole, the elongated Cub pitcher, is keeping in condition by assisting his uncle in pulling up tree stumps on a farm in Michigan. The Bay City barber hopes to do a turn in vaudeville soon.

"MORE SPEED," IS NOW THE SLOGAN AT CAMP BENDER

Fastest Boys Will Get Places in Lineup Against Kentucky State.

Determined to have a duplicate backfield for the remaining two games of the season, Coach Johnny Bender Tuesday put his second string of stars on the backfield of the first eleven, and ran their heads off in signal work. Zachritz, Sieh and McGuire broke into the game in this way. Painter was excused from work, while Dockery ran the second team with McCarthy playing halfback there. Stadtherr, who did such good work at fullback on the varsity during the Missouri game, was shifted to halfback on the regulars. He showed his unfamiliarity with the signals, in this position, but will be ready for any task by Saturday.

Bender's backfield outlook is now such that he can afford to breath a sigh of relief. He has two great quarterbacks who at the same time are star punters and field goal kickers in Dockery and Maguire. He has duplicates for every other backfeld position of such equal strength that he was Tuesday uncertain what his opening lineup for the game with Kentucky State University team would be.

One thing is certain—the speed boys will get the job next Saturday. Kentucky has a wonderfully fast if not particularly heavy eleven, and this will induce Bender to meet speed with speed.

There is no question of dissatisfaction with the work of the backfield men in the Missouri game. Bender's reason for changing is to get all his players in shape so that any man on the job will be equally familiar with the position and equally capable.

Kentucky State is sure to be in for some rough going if the men continue to show the improvement it has displayed in the last two weeks. Bender's machine is working beautifully, and if accidents do not happen there will be a tolerably warm reception awaiting Syracuse.

Strikes and Spares.

The dates set for the National bowling tournament at Buffalo are from Feb. 25 to March 18, 1911. It will be held in the Broadway City Convention Hall. John G. Floss, secretary and general manager, 828 Washington street, is receiving entries.

In the Western Rowing Club, the Western Leaders, after having given Iola No. 2 a handicap of 20 pins a game, won two out of three. Scores: Western Leaders, 829, 852 and 894; Iola No. 2, 811, 986 and 778. The Rialtos gave the Stifels No. 2 a handicap of 59 pins in the first game, 48 in the second and 49 in the last game and took three in a row. Scores: Rialtos, 755, 864 and 829; Stifels No. 2, 725, 738 and 791.

Jake Pflueger says that just a simple natural swing is the most effective in bowling. Tremendous speed or a twist ball are energy wasted.

Charles Wall has had his two alleys at the Planters Hotel put in fine shape for the winter. Wall may possibly roll with one of the Royal Arcanum teams in the A. B. C. tournament, but at any rate he will send a five-man team, called the "Planters" team, to represent his alleys.

Chicago bowlers were astonished to learn last week that they had been breaking one of the rules of the American Bowling Congress that requires a club to start all three of its games in a league contest on the same alley on which the team is scheduled.

The custom in Chicago has been to start the second game on the alley on which the team finished the first, going back to the original alley for the third game. The rule was intended for national tournaments, but is said to cover league play also, and, accordingly, all the Chicago leagues have been breaking the law.

An entry list of at least 450 clubs is expected for the American Bowling Congress to be held at the Coliseum in January and February. This will be 60 more teams than the list that competed at Detroit last year. The early date of the opening is believed to have caused the big gain in the entry list.

Following is the Grand Central League standing:

| TEAM. | Won. | Lost. | Pct. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Burkes | 14 | 4 | .883 |
| Falstaffs | 13 | 5 | .843 |
| L. & M. | 10 | 8 | .614 |
| Talbot Gems | 10 | 8 | .614 |
| Minstrels | 9 | 9 | .614 |
| Helms | 8 | 11 | .421 |
| Kuhs | 6 | 12 | .333 |
| Fausts | 3 | 15 | [illegible] |

Up and Down the Gridiron

That rule permitting men taken out of the game to return to it later doesn't seem to have accomplished much in the line of helping the game. The team with 11 men that play throughout is still the one that gets the pennants. Substitutions break up team unity.

Almost every game played demonstrates the great difficulty of scoring under the new rules. Another year will see teams taking more chances and clinging less determinedly to possession of the ball. That is, if the rules remain unchanged.

The old guard would like to see points given the team that carries the ball a definite number of yards, say 75, without losing possession of it. That is the real test of football strength, after all.

Hollenback is blaming his players for defeat at St. Louis. But there's just a little come-back to the coach who shifts his team make-up with every breath. Missouri doesn't seem to have the confidence in the Pennsylvanian it had in Roper.

Think of Illinois claiming the conference championship! It is to be hoped that the Gophers give the Illini a post-season game just to demonstrate a trick or two. Indiana is not Minnesota by two or three touchdowns.

If Cayou only had a line worth the name he might beat the Tigers. His back field is good enough to work anywhere. Against a strong line, however, the Pikeway runners are stopped before the play can form.

Washington used nothing of her "inside" plays against Arkansas, reserving everything for Missouri Saturday.

Missouri hardly treated the Washington men fairly in the matter of schedule. The Columbia men insist that all games between the schools hereafter be played in Columbia. Evidently the State University financiers figure St. Louis U. is huskier in the matter of either a guarantee or a "gate."

"Ain't it the truth?"

Pennsy could give Harvard a hard tussle for the college championship on that 20—0 victory over Brown. Should Michigan beat Penn, doubtless that eleven will be claiming everything in sight. There still will remain the Gophers to beat, however, even with Penn out of the way.

When concentrating for a particular game, any eleven can be figured about 40 per cent stronger than its best previous showing. On this basis Princeton will have no walkover Saturday, weak though Yale has shown.

Accurate timers figure that if a kicker gets a drop-kick away in 2 1-5 seconds from the snap-back he will avoid being blocked, even though the opposing line breaks through immediately.

Cayou is using the direct pass almost exclusively.

Princeton's improvement with each game is speaking as well for Roper's methods as did the result of the campaign of Missouri U. last season.

Syracuse will come to St. Louis U. Thanksgiving with a pretty badly used up eleven, unless the "dope" is all wrong. The Syracuse men play Illinois University the Saturday previous and the signs point to a close, hard game. Only five days intervene before the struggle with the Bender men, who do not play any contests between Saturday, Nov. 12, and Thanksgiving day.

Zachritz, Maguire, Sieh and Snyder are going to have one large time breaking into the line-up that Bender sent against Missouri Saturday. These men are all supposedly first-string men, but after the great work of Haley and Ehrhardt, at end, and of Stadtherr, Painter and McCarthy behind the line, they all appear "regulars."

This would have been a big year for Western Military Academy, had interscholastic athletics not received such a blow. Western, with a victory over Central, has the best scholastic team in the vicinity.

That Smith Academy-Central High game, once the banner feature of the interscholastic year, has dwindled to nothing. Smith has an indifferent team and will probably be beaten a city block by Walker's eleven.

C. B. C.'s soccer eleven could probably trim any college team in the country. The eleven has profited greatly by the example and play of the local professional league teams.

Yale played Brown with not a veteran of the famous Coy eleven of 1909 on the field. Harvard lost but one star of last season's good eleven—Captain Ham Fish.

Macomber, of Rolla, Will Join Tigers

COLUMBIA, Mo., Nov. 9.

A FAIRLY authentic rumor here has it that Macomber, star halfback on the Missouri School of Mines football eleven, will next week transfer his entrance credits from Rolla to the engineering college at Columbia. This would make him eligible to play football for Missouri, as the Rolla school is a department of the State University. The mining department (like engineering, law, medicine, etc.) is governed by the same Board of Curators and has precisely the same entrance requirements and regulations as the various colleges at Columbia, so there is no doubt as to his eligibility if he enters.

Gilchrist, now at Annapolis, entered Columbia last year from Rolla in time to play against Drake and Kansas. Macomber's acquisition would strengthen Missouri's back field, as he is recognized as one of the best halfbacks in the Missouri Valley. He weighs 170 pounds and is fast, heady and aggressive. Rolla plays Arkansas, their last scheduled contest, next Saturday, so Macomber will be unable to appear with the Tigers against Washington next Saturday.

WASHINGTON FACULTY WILL HELP OUT FOOTBALL SQUAD

In order to give the football eleven of Washington University a little more time to prepare for the Missouri game, Saturday, the faculty of the Pikeway institution has come to the rescue and made arrangements whereby the players will have two afternoons off after 3 o'clock. Ordinarily the team does not get to the field before 5 p. m. and the time for work is far from sufficient. The team has been handicapped by want of practice time throughout the season.

Shay Signs Two Saints.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 9.—Manager Danny Shay of the Kansas City (American Association) team, has signed Third Baseman Orval Woodruff and Second Baseman Baker of the St. Paul team of the same league. They were obtained via the waiver route.

KAUFMAN IN FOR ROUGH TIME IN FRIDAY'S BATTLE

BY ROBERT EDGREN.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Jim Stewart is training at the National Club in Brooklyn; Al Kaufman is at Allenhurst, N. J. They are to fight Friday night at the National Sporting Club.

I saw Stewart work out yesterday afternoon. If any man ever was in earnest, he is. He means to fight, and to win if it's in him.

Jim is a big fellow, 216 pounds stripped, was what the scales showed yesterday after two hours of hard training under heavy sweaters and woolen bands.

The big Brooklyn boy is a picturesque figure. Yesterday he looked like an old-time man-at-arms in helmet and leathern jerkin. On his head, pulled down to the line of his eyebrows, he wore a knitted cap. Stewart's skin cuts easily, and sometimes while in a match he bleeds and looks in bad shape when he isn't hurt at all. For a month he has been "pickling" his face in brine every day, and the cap is an additional protection against cuts received in his training bouts.

I have seen big Jim faster than he was yesterday. In fact, he complained of feeling a little slow and said he'd ease up in his work. He has been training now for five months.

Stewart is only 23 years old. Wonder what he'll look like when he grows up? His whole ambition is to be heavyweight champion and he says he'll stick until he gets there.

In the meantime Mr. Al Kaufman has the same ambition.

Ex-Quakers Get Salary Raise.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 9.—The eagerness of Pitcher George McQuillen and Outfielder Johnny Bates, the former Philadelphians, to signs contracts with the Cincinnati club, is explained by the fact that McQuillen is to receive $3500 and Bates $3500 for work next season. It is said their checks last year were little over half these figures.

INTERCITY CUE STARS IN FINAL

Vincent Botto, the clever St. Louis three-cushion billiard player, redeemed St. Louis' cue reputation last night at Peterson's billiard hall, when he defeated R. Norgrove of Kansas City in the second match of the intercity league series between Kansas City and St. Louis teams. The games, so far, stand one for each burg.

Botto outclassed his opponent both in execution and safety play, winning 50 to 36, after leading all the way. Starting with a lead of four points, Botto steadily increased the gap in the score over his youthful opponent. Norgrove did not seem to be in his best form, missing natural shots repeatedly.

The game tonight between Tommy Carter and Keyes, who defeated Frank Peterson in the opening game, will be the best of the series. Keyes is a steady, reliable executor, while Carter is one of the most brilliant of the newer stars of the city. Carter is absolutely unruffled during his games and the lead his opponent may get on him at any time during the contest is never an indication of the finish.

DIX THANKS NEW YORK WORLD FOR ITS FIGHT ON DEMAGOGISM

Governor-Elect Declares Newspaper's Campaign Reflects Honor on the Press.

THOMSON, N. Y., Nov. 9.—Gov.-elect John A. Dix last night dictated the following message to the New York World:

"The independence of your paper, its efficient, able and fearless stand against demagogism and all its allied influence, is not only superlative but reflects honor on the press. Please accept my best wishes for your well-deserved success.

"JOHN A. DIX."

Earlier in the evening, when notified by the World, over the telephone, of his election, Mr. Dix said: "My first message must be one of sincerest congratulation to the New York World. It has conducted an able and consistent campaign, and the result proves that it was effective. It was such support as few candidates for public office have ever had."

Dickerson Prepares His Report.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—Secretary Dickinson was at his desk in the War Department today engaged in preparation of a report upon his trip around the world with especial reference to conditions in the Philippines. This he expects to have ready for submission to the President upon the return of the latter from the Isthmus of Panama.

BOY IS HURT; AUTOISTS FLEE

Lad Is in East St. Louis Hospital in Precarious Condition.

John Avault, 9 years old, son of James Avault of 531 North Sixth street, East St. Louis, who was run down by a touring car on Collinsville avenue Tuesday afternoon, is at the Henrietta Hospital in a precarious condition. His skull and left hip are fractured.

The boy was crossing Collinsville avenue, near Ohio avenue, when the machine, which witnesses say was going 40 miles an hour, struck him. The automobilists did not stop. There were two men and a woman in the car.

CURTISS BIPLANE IS TO BE USED IN STEAMSHIP TEST

Machine Will Be Equipped With Safety Appliances to Keep It Afloat.

McCURDY IS VETERAN

Young Aviator Was the First to Fly in Canada and Is Pioneer in Science.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Not even the election could detract from the keen interest displayed in the remarkable aviation test which the New York World and Post-Dispatch have planned, and which, barring thick fog or high winds, will be held next Saturday. This test is a demonstration of the possibility of an aeroplane rising from the deck of a steamship and bearing its aviator in a 50-mile flight from ship to shore. F. A. D. McCurdy, the aviator who has been engaged to make the flight, probably will start from the vessel at about 3 o'clock in the afternoon and about an hour later should be discerned coming up the upper bay and heading for Governor's Island, where Major-General Grant has accorded permission for him to land.

Although still young, McCurdy might be called a veteran aviator. He was one of the pioneer birdmen in this country, and when merely a boy was interested in the heavier-than-air type of flying machines. He is the foster son of Alexander Graham Bell, the inventor of the telephone.

Experimented in Canada.

Until McCurdy joined the Curtiss flock of flyers, he had devoted himself entirely to experimental work with the aeroplane. In this he was associated with Dr. Bell at his experimental station in Baddeck, Canada, where he spent the greater part of each winter flying over the frozen lake, the various aeroplanes built by Dr. Bell. With his first machine, the Silver Dart, the young aviator attracted much attention and made some very successful flights.

The first flights made by McCurdy with the Silver Dart conducted in Canada, were the first aeroplane flights in the Dominion. During the early part of the summer McCurdy conducted experiments for the Canadian Government which the army officers witnessed and approved. It was after these tests for the Canadian Government that McCurdy decided to join the Curtiss forces. His progress was most rapid and today he stands as one of the leading aviators in this country. At Sheepshead Bay racetrack, when Curtiss held an aviation meet there last August, McCurdy made the first test with wireless telegraphy from an aeroplane. He was formerly a telegraph operator and it had been his desire for some time to make this experiment.

Will Use Curtiss Biplane.

The machine was a Curtiss biplane—which McCurdy will use on Saturday—differs considerably from that which was used in Canada. Although the Pennsylvania, from which the flight will be made is a very large steamship, the deck space is necessarily more limited than the open fields from which the aeroplane flights are customarily made. It was, therefore, necessary to select a machine that is adapted for quick rising, and it is well known the Curtiss biplanes hold the record for this quality It required only one trial for McCurdy to familiarize himself with the operation of a Curtiss machine, and in all of his subsequent flights he has won cordial applause for his skill as a flier.

Like the Hudson flier which Curtiss used when he won the prize of $10,000 offered by the New York Yorld for a flight from Albany to New York, the machine which McCurdy will employ will be equipped with pontoons, which in case of an accident will buoy up the machine and keep the aviator afloat. The machine is much lighter than most types of biplanes, is very fast and maintains a very graceful appearance when flying through the air. The machine is of the same type which Hamilton used in his remarkable flight from New York to Philadelphia. This machine was also the only one to start in the trip from Chicago to New York—a trip which had to be abandoned on account of weather conditions.

GEORGIANS LYNCH TWO NEGROES FOR MURDER OF A POLICEMAN

One Confesses Before He Is Hanged From Telegraph Pole and Riddled With Shot.

MONTEZUMA, Ga., Nov. 8.—Two negroes were hanged from a telegraph pole last night in Flint River swamps, less than a mile from the center of the city.

William Barnes and John Walker were both held for the murder of Policeman Bush of Montezuma. Walker was forcibly taken from the jail at Oglethorpe by a mob. Barnes was arrested yesterday and, after being taken to Oglethorpe, was brought back to the workhouse here. He is said to have made a full confession.

At 9 o'clock last night citizens here heard a number of pistol shots and found Barnes' body dangling from the telegraph pole and riddled with bullets. At midnight more pistol shots were heard and this morning the body of Walker was seen hanging from the same pole.

BERGER IS FIRST SOCLALIST TO WIN SEAT IN CONGRESS

His Party Sweeps Milwaukee County, Electing Ticket From Top to Bottom.

LA FOLLETTE IS VICTOR

Committee Declares Legislature Is Safe for His Re-Election to the Senate.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 9.—The Social-Democratic party achieved a notable victory in yesterday's election by electing Victor L. Berger, Fifth District, to represent Wisconsin in the national Congress. Berger will have the distinction of being the first Social-Democrat to sit in Congress.

In addition, they swept Milwaukee County, electing their county ticket from top to bottom by pluralities ranging from 3000 to 7000, the latter being attained by William A. Arnold, the candidate for Sheriff.

The vote for Governor in Milwaukee County was: Jacobs (Social-Democrat), 23,812; McGovern (Republican), 20 020; Schmitz (Democrat), 15,895; Van Keuren (Prohibition), 805.

The Socialists also elected 13 members to the Legislature, one Senator and 12 Assemblymen from Milwaukee County.

Elect La Follette Legislature.

The Republicans elected a La Follette legislature and their entire State ticket. Frances E. McGovern, Republican Governor-elect, has a plurality estimated at 60,000. The State Central Committee claims at least 80 votes in the Legislature for La Follette on joint ballot, which is a safe majority.

Eight Republican Congressmen, one Democrat (the Sixth district), and one Social-Democrat were elected.

Berger was pitted against Henry C. Cochems, an insurgent Republican, and Joseph F. Carney, Democrat. Berger's plurality is estimated at 288. Cochems is the young man of university football fame who placed Senator La Follette in nomination for President at the last Republican National convention.

Berger Issues Statement.

Mr. Berger today gave out the following statement:

"I am deeply moved by the unprecedented victory of the Social-Democratic party in Milwaukee. The United States of America now gets into line with all the other civilized nations of the world and the working class of Milwaukee has the immortal honor of starting a new chapter in American history.

"The reason for this is obvious. The working classes of Milwaukee have been educated by a literature propaganda of many years. They have been taught the cardinal truths of Socialism, which is nothing more or less than the political economy of the working class.

"Economic conditions, the trusts and the trust prices did the rest. These facts furnish examples of the theory we expounded. I deeply feel the honor of having been the first man selected to present Social-Democracy in Congress, but I also feel the great responsibility. I can only say that I shall give the best that is in me in the future as I have in the past, to the great cause which I have espoused, which, after all, is the cause of humanity."

WHEN THE WOMEN RULE

AUTO OWNER IS INJURED WHEN MACHINE UPSETS

Companion Saves Himself by Leaping From the Car.

An automobile owned by Frank C. Riddle, manufacturer, skidded and overturned, pinning Riddle beneath its body, when he attempted to make a sharp turn into De Baliviere avenue from Lindell boulevard at 10:15 p. m. Tuesday. F. P. Clements, who was also in the machine, escaped injury by jumping just before the auto lost its equilibrium.

Riddle was rescued by passersby, who lifted the machine and conveyed him in another auto to St. Luke's Hospital, where it was found his collar bone was fractured and he was cut about the face and head.

Riddle and Clements, both of whom live at the Jefferson Hotel, were traveling west along Lindell boulevard, and as they were crossing De Baliviere suddenly decided to turn south in the direction of Forest Park. Riddle manipulated the steering apparatus so quickly that the auto pivoted on its front wheels and threw the rear wheels around with much force. Clements stood up in the car as the turn was being made and when he saw it would turn turtle, jumped. Riddle stuck to the wheel and when the auto went over he was buried.

KING PELTED BY PAPER BOMBS

BRUSSELS, Nov. 9.—An extraordinary demonstration occurred in the streets yesterday as King Albert drove to the Palace of the Nation to open Parliament. A million slips of paper bearing a demand for universal suffrage stormed the royal carriage and some heavy packages of these were thrown at the King's carriage by a crowd of socialists. His Majesty was not hit.

As the King opened the parliamentary session, violent altercations between the Socialists and Catholics began at once.

COURT CONVICTS 26 PLOTTERS AGAINST MIKADO; 1 A WOMAN

TOKIO, Nov. 9.—The finding of the special court organized to try the plotters against the life of the Emperor has been announced. Twenty-six persons found guilty, including the ring leaders, Kotoku and his wife. The court recommends "the severest penalty under clause 73," which provides capital punishment for plotters against the Imperial family.

UTAH REJECTS PROHIBITION; LEGISLATURE IS REPUBLICAN

Anti-Mormon Party Carries Salt Lake City but Loses in the County.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Nov. 9.—Utah re-elected, Joseph H. Howell, Representative to Congress and rejected state-wide prohibition as demanded by the Democratic platform.

The American (anti-Mormon) party carried Salt Lake City for its congressional candidate, but lost the county by a plurality of from 3000 to 5000.

The Legislature is Republican, which means the return of George Sutherland to the United States Senate. At 2 a. m. only 143 precincts out of a total of 556 had been heard from. These gave the following vote for congressmen: Howell, Republican, 23,408; Erickson, Democrat, 13,604.

"A NERVOUS WRECK"

"My daughter is rapidly becoming a nervous wreck," said an anxious father to a friend who happened to be a druggist,—"she has no appetite, is run-down, weak, takes no interest in anything, and we cannot find anything that helps her."

"Why don't you give her Vinol"—said the druggist—"it is not a secret nostrum, just a simple and delicious cod liver and iron tonic—and the best strength creator and general all round tonic we have ever sold in our store. Take a bottle home and try it. We'll return your money if it does not help her."

Within ten days the father came back for another bottle of Vinol, saying that he had never seen such a change in a girl in his life, and he felt sure one more bottle of Vinol would restore her to her normal condition.

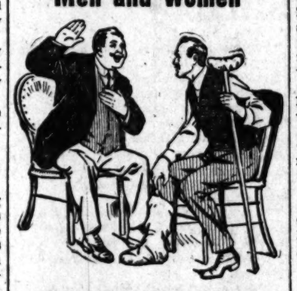

Such cases as the above are constantly coming to our attention, and we ask every run-down, nervous, debilitated, aged or weak person in this vicinity, and every person suffering from a chronic cough, cold, or bronchial trouble, to try a bottle of Vinol on the same terms as above. YOU—Nerve-Wrecked Men and Women

It's Make-Man Tablets You Need.

We Prove It—Free.

"Nerve-wrecked" seems like a harsh word, but it's true. There may be a thousand reasons why your nerves have become totally wrecked. It does not stop there. Weak, worn-out nerves is the cause of most bodily ills. The blood becomes impoverished—thin and watery—uric acid gathers in the system, causing Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble. Then comes Nervous Prostration, Sleeplessness, Anemia and a general breakdown.

But listen—there is a certain sure cure in the right way with the use of Make-Man Tablets. They are the safest, most beneficial and effective nerve-builder, blood purifier and disease-defier ever compounded. They have no equal. Try them—today. Don't be a skeptic. Skeptics die young, because you can't convince them.

Quincy Graves, City Hospital, St. Louis, frankly states: "Since using Make-Man Tablets I am feeling a great deal better. My catarrh is cured, as I can breathe through my nose now. I feel a hundred per cent better than I did when I first started using your wonderful tonic—Make-Man Tablets."

Make-Man Tablets will make you well. You can try a 50-cent box free, by writing today to the Make-Man Tablet Co., 123 Make-Man Tablet Bldg., Chicago, Ill. If you are already convinced that Make-Man Tablets are what you need, you can obtain them from your druggist at 50c a box, with money back if not satisfied.

SOCIETY TO SEE MISS BAGNELL'S CHURCH WEDDING

Bishop Tuttle Will Perform Ceremony Making Her W. S. Culbertson's Bride.

HE IS A KENTUCKIAN

After a Honeymoon Trip the Couple Will Live in Louisville.

The Church of the Holy Communion will be the scene of one of the most beautiful weddings of the early winter season when Miss Effie Bagnell will become the bride of William Stuart Culbertson of Louisville, Ky., at 4:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Miss Bagnell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bagnell of Westmoreland place and is one of the most attractive girls presented last season. The Right Rev. Bishop Tuttle and the rector of the church, Mr. Wise, will officiate.

Pink chrysanthemums and smilax will decorate the church and be employed at the residence where a reception to several hundred friends will be held between the hours of 5 and 7 o'clock. The bride will enter the church with her father. Her bridal robe is of white satin very simply fashioned with long court train and trimmed with rose point lace. She will wear a veil of rose point lace, an heirloom, which will be caught with lilies of the valley. Orchids and lilies will form the bridal bouquet.

The bridesmaids will wear pale pink satin gowns with tunics of cream Chantilly lace and will wear picture hats of black velvet with soft plumes of pale pink. They will carry Killarney roses. The maids of honor will be in similar gowns with the exception of pale blue sashes and bouquets of pink roses and lilies of the valley.

The bride's attendants are Miss Frances Filley, Miss Edwine Thornburgh, Miss Isabel Mersman, Miss Elizabeth Edgar, Miss Mary Scudder, Miss Grace Jennings of Brooklyn, N. Y., Miss Florence McFatrick of Chicago, Miss Dorothy Hussey of Louisville, Ky.

Mr. Culbertson will be served by his brother, Craig Culbertson, as best man. Messers. Huntley Gibson, Blakemore Wheeler, Charles Ballard, John Peters, Robert Bagnell will usher.

Mrs. Bagnell, the bride's mother, will wear a gown of white brocade with rose point lace and sable. Her hat is of white and gold lace with sable bands and crown.

Mrs. Culbertson, the bridegroom's mother, will wear French gray satin with touches of coral.

The bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Culbertson, will be in purple velvet and rose point lace.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Culbertson will go for a bridal journey to the Bermudas. They will make their home in Louisville.

Some of the out-of-town guests from Louisville are Gen. and Mrs. Castleman, Miss Helen Hickman, Bayler Hickman, Mr. and Mrs. Claggert, Mr. and Mrs. Fenley, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jones.

CARD SAYS ROOSEVELT DID IT

Grim Election Comment Placed on His Picture in Harvard Club.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The picture of Roosevelt, '80, has been hanging in the hall at the Harvard Club for years. He gave it to the club himself and signed it across a corner in his own broad style. Last night a passer-by spied it as he was going out. He turned to John, the doorman, asking for a blank card. Then he went to a desk in the reception room and wrote three words. As he went out the door he paused in front of the picture, thrusting the card into a corner opposite the Colonel's name. This is what appeared: "I did it."

HOBOES OFFER TO EAT FOOD FROM GIRLS' COOKING SCHOOL

Letter Says They Will Consume Anything From Pie to Newlywed Biscuits.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 9.—Fear that high school boys might be called on to eat the cooking of pretty girl undergraduates of the City Cooking School was dissipated today when an offer was received by members of the Board of Education to furnish enough hungry hoboes to consume the viands of the amateur cooks, no matter how dangerous.

The offer came from a man who signed himself king of the tramps, and who asked that acceptance of his offer be sent to him at the postoffice at Cambridge, Pa.

The stranger, in his letter, declared his belief of ability to get a squad of knights of the road, whom he declared can eat "anything from New England pies to newlywed biscuits." The offer will be officially considered at the next meeting of the School Board.

GIRLS' PILLOWS AND QUILTS WERE PUZZLE TO CHIEF

Until He Discovered They Were Intended for E. L. Young, a Prisoner.

Two girls, each carrying a large bundle, approached the desk in Central District Police Station Tuesday night.

"May we see Mr. Young?" one of them asked.

"What is it about?" queries Sergt. Owen McNamee, who knew Chief Young was busy.

"We want to give him some quilts and pillows and a little lunch," said the taller of the two girls, blushing slightly.

"Oh," said McNamee, supposing the Chief would spend election night in his office; "then, I suppose, you will want to see him personally. Just go upstairs.

"Chief, these young ladies have a package to deliver," Secretary Miller said as he directed the girls to the Chief's desk.

"That's strange," said the Chief. "I didn't tell my wife to send me anything."

The girls looked at each other and then at the Chief. Their eyes opened widely.

"Is your name Young, too?" they asked.

When the situation finally was explained the girl were allowed to go to the holdover and deliver their bundles to the cell occupied by E. L. Young, who has been under lock and key since Monday.

If you are forced to admit that the Health Link is growing weaker, suppose you look carefully after the cause.

Your own well-being and comfort may suggest determined effort to correct.

Perhaps you will permit a suggestion based upon some wide experience.

There is one particular thing which directly attacks the health of one in every three of the users.

Its work is plain enough. Nerves, heart, stomach and other organs becoming more and more unbalanced, but the real cause is frequently unsuspected.

To demonstrate the real facts as applied to yourself, and for your own satisfaction, it is suggested that coffee be absolutely discontinued for 10 days and observe the results.

If you discover a stronger, better acting heart, steadier nerves and sounder sleep, it will be reasonably clear that your body is offering thanks for relief from the daily drug, caffeine—the base of coffee.

You will probably receive much benefit from simply leaving off coffee.

It will greatly add to your comfort to have a good, hot cup of well-made Postum each morning and Dame Nature will repair much more rapidly, for Postum contains some elements from the wheat which Nature uses in rebuilding nerve tissue.

THE SMASHING OF PROHIBITION.

We congratulate St. Louis and Missouri on the overwhelming defeat of the prohibition amendment. It is a wise and righteous decision of the people which saves both the city and State from moral and material disaster. The Post-Dispatch takes a peculiar pleasure in extending these congratulations. This paper took the lead in the battle against Amendment No. 10. It began before the voters had registered. Its appeal "to save St. Louis" met with a tremendous popular response. An immediate result was the largest registration of voters in the history of the city. It led the fight thereafter and in the result it finds justification of its leadership and approval of its conduct.

So large is the majority against the prohibitory amendment that a fair conclusion is that every point raised in objection to it was effective. There is not a shadow of doubt that both the city and the State are unalterably opposed to prohibition, because it infringes personal liberty; because it promotes vice, immorality and disrespect for law, order and decency; because it impairs business stability, upsets values and lessens material prosperity. The verdict is that prohibition is neither good morals, good business nor good sense. So emphatically has this judgment been written that the question of its practicability or advantage or necessity should never again be brought forward in Missouri to assume the proportions of a political issue.

Credit for the momentous defeat of this amendment is largely due to the Citizens' Defense Committee. Whatever the brewers, the distillers and the liquor dealers did in opposition was done of their own motion and without the assistance of or alliance with the determined citizens who rightly disregarded the personal interests of the liquor men and placed themselves on the broad ground of a sound public policy. They adhered to their early resolves with perfect consistency. They gained the confidence of the people and they have now the satisfaction of seeing victory as the reward of their honest and public-spirited efforts.

Without such a campaign and without the splendid object lesson of a regulative liquor law wisely, impartially and rigidly enforced, prohibition would have been a real and continuing menace. Out of the campaign comes the teaching that there must be not only no modification of this liquor law or its administration toward laxness, but there must be such amendments to it as experience has taught will bring the purposes of the law still nearer to realization. Regulative laws and their perfect enforcement are the bulwarks of the morality, decency and prosperity which prohibition would destroy.

Five million dollars ought to be enough to erect a first-class $4,000,000 capitol.

DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENTIAL TIMBER.

Woodrow Wilson will be Governor of New Jersey. Judson Harmon will again be Governor of Ohio. In the light of their successes, their qualities and their personal characteristics, these two men already loom up conspicuously as candidates for the presidential nomination in 1912. Out of the welter of conflict there seems to have come at least two men toward whom the eyes of Democrats may be turned with hope and confidence. From this time forward the eyes of the country will be on Wilson and Harmon.

Miss E. Lillian Todd, who invented and built an aeroplane, including the engine, says she is not a suffragette—an unnecessary explanation. Were she a suffragette she would have confined her efforts to telling what a woman could do in that line.

AEROPLANE LIFE-SAVING SERVICE.

The Government will watch the steamship-aeroplane test, planned by the World and Post-Dispatch, Nov. 24, when McCurdy will try to fly from the steamship America, far out at sea, to Governor's Island. It may be shown that delivery of mails may be greatly expedited.

If the experiment is successful, a further step may be made in an attempt to extend the uses of the aeroplane to saving life in case of shipwreck. On Monday the Preussen, the largest sailing ship, lay helpless off the coast of Dover, England, being beaten to pieces by the waves. Around her steamed sea-going tugs and lifeboats, but it was impossible to do anything to save the crew, because of the violence of the waves.

The main thing to be done in such cases is to cast lines from the wreck to a nearby ship, or to the shore if near enough. The breeches buoy can then be used and lives saved. A powerful aeroplane might succeed in doing this where tugs and lifeboats would be useless. The light planes now in use have been flown in very high winds. With stronger and heavier machines a new branch of the life-saving service could be inaugurated that would yield good results.

Texas is about ready to ship 2,000,000 turkeys North. When placed on exhibition they may be viewed for a quarter.

THE FRANCIS MISTAKE.

The Post-Dispatch accepts the defeat of David R. Francis for the Democratic senatorial nomination as a wise and just decision of the Democrats of Missouri on the question of his availability for the office of United States Senator. But we do not rejoice in his humiliation. We regret the necessity of defeating a citizen of St. Louis of his prominence, ability, official experience and universally acknowledged qualities of public leadership. We regret the necessity, in view of the crucial struggle of the people against the organized forces of plutocracy for control of the Government, which compelled the Post-Dispatch to direct public attention to the record, the utterances, the affiliations and the interests of Mr. Francis, bearing upon his fitness for the Senate. These we believed rendered him unavailable to represent Democracy in Congress.

The task of enlightening the Democracy of the State on the great blunder which the nomination of Mr. Francis would involve was performed regretfully, but thoroughly and fearlessly, by the Post-Dispatch. We published accurate, conservative statements concerning Mr. Francis' acts, utterances, interests, affiliations. Our work is vindicated by the result. A substantial, but as yet unmeasured majority, of Missouri Democrats registered at the polls their approval of the Post-Dispatch's course. In this city the rebuke of the plutocratic forces was attested as much by the large number of St. Louis Democrats who failed to vote on the senatorship as by the astonishing smallness of the Francis majority. Refusing to support Mr. Francis for the Senate, and unwilling to vote against so conspicuous a fellow citizen, they declined to vote at all.

Mr. Francis' candidacy was a regrettable mistake. His campaign was a mistake. The methods used by his managers were a series of blunders. The appeal to the money power and the use of money in the attempt to force Mr. Francis on the voters was an unpardonable act. It justified everything the Post-Dispatch urged against the Francis candidacy. The party suffered even more than the candidate from these mistakes. The concentration of all the party's organized forces and the influence of its local organ on the Francis campaign greatly damaged the Democratic cause. It contributed largely to a Democratic disaster in this city which has not been exceeded in the local organization's history.

The "atrocious liar" vote being solidly for Dix, the result was never in doubt.

A ROOSEVELT DEFEAT.

Theodore Roosevelt and the New Nationalism have gone down to their Waterloo. Mr. Roosevelt will not be the Republican candidate for President in 1912.

In the New York campaign he elbowed Mr. Taft and the Republican administration aside while he conducted a skyrocket campaign for a third term and his own political apotheosis. Mr. Roosevelt has been speaking for many weeks. Now the people have spoken.

He is beaten decisively in his own State, where his personally conducted candidate is overwhelmed and the Republicans have lost the governorship for the first time in 16 years.

He is beaten in his own congressional district. He is beaten in his own home district, in his own town, which was carried by John A. Dix. He is beaten in Massachusetts, where he viciously assailed Mr. Foss, and the people elected Mr. Foss Governor. He is beaten in Connecticut, where he viciously assailed Judge Baldwin, and the people elected Judge Baldwin Governor. He is beaten in Ohio, where he viciously assailed Judson Harmon, and the people elected Judson Harmon Governor. He is beaten in New Jersey, where Woodrow Wilson made an Old-Nationalism, Democratic campaign against the vagaries of the New Nationalism. He is beaten in Indiana, where he campaigned for Senator Beveridge on a fake tariff platform of false pretenses. He is beaten in Iowa, where a Republican majority of 74,000 is nearly, if not completely, wiped out.

And wherever Mr. Roosevelt has been beaten he has been beaten by Republican votes.

This is no partisan Democratic victory in the ordinary sense of that term. While it is a defeat for the Taft administration and for the Republican party, it is peculiarly a defeat for Theodore Roosevelt and his 1912 ambitions. It was brought about by the help of Republicans who were dissatisfied with the record of the Taft administration and the Aldrich-Cannon revision of the tariff. But it was also brought about by hundreds of thousands of patriotic Republicans, who still believe in the Constitution of the United States, who still uphold the Supreme Court and who will tolerate no third-term ambitions in any man, whatever the party name that makes his pretensions.

Republican victory would have been a Roosevelt victory. Republican defeat is a Roosevelt defeat. When the Republican convention in 1912 looks for this mysterious Moses whom Elihu Root has so eloquently described, it will not look in the direction of Oyster Bay.

Wheat King Patten says he is going to give it all away before he dies. This diverts attention from where he got it to the more interesting point of where it is going to.

To commemorate the establishment of the republic Portugal has granted amnesty to all political offenders, including, of course, ex-King Manuel.

One health expert advises the wearing of summer garments in winter. Thus we learn the Payne-Aldrich law is a promoter of health.

A New York boy accidentally shot his grandmother. It's lucky for him that the league season has closed.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Quality Not Quantity.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

If those who are striving to gain a million population for St. Louis would use their means to make the best of what they have, their efforts would bring better results.

Give work to the unemployed men over 45 that are told they are "down and out" because they have a few gray hairs. Also a vast army of women over 35 that are able and willing to do a day's work.

Save the waste of the city. The paper and rags thrown out daily if collected systematically and sold to the paper manufacturers would place a municipal loan fund in the hands of the Million Club that would save thousands of homes today, tied up in the loan shark's tentacles.

Other cities help their newsboys. What does St. Louis do? Shoulders it on the head of a devoted priest.

Who will be the first to put a floating creche and nursery on the river next summer (no ground rent to pay?)

Be a Ranken Jr. while you are living. Your money was only loaned to you.

When the outside world learns what St. Louis is doing along these lines, airships will be in demand and railroads will be too slow to bring the crowds here.

A WOMAN.

Inconsiderate Woman.

I address the following open letter to the Hatpin Brigade through the Post-Dispatch:

Is it possible you do not realize what a danger you are to the public? I was yesterday riding on a street car and counted in that alone no less than 11 who come under my title. Oh! I admit the problem is a difficult one with the fashion of wearing these new close-fitting "chimney-pot" hats, but am rather under the impression it has been solved by the big stores; and even if it has not been, why any woman should not exercise care and good feeling in the manner in which she puts her hatpins through, beats my comprehension.

In every case in the car I speak of the hats were brimless and the wearers had put their hatpins through regardless of the length they came out the other side with unprotected points. The car was crowded and constantly jerking, which caused people to collide. Look at the risk of blinding or maiming any person for life—and it has been known to happen—then it is too late for regrets.

Young people go to palmists, etc., for character reading, but you do not need to go so far. Glance around you; surely by instances of this kind you can read a character without paying a fee. Had I the power a law should be passed to abolish this unnecessary evil. As I have not, I can only appeal to the better side of you all. And beg you to remember there are others in the world besides your careless selves.

IDA GORDON-STABLES.

"The Girl in the Taxi."

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Right under your dramatic critic's condemnation of the play with this title appeared an advertisement with the heading, "Danger," accompanied by a skull and cross-bones. This was purely accidental, of course, but highly appropriate. The young men and women who allow themselves to follow up plays of this character are imbibing moral poison, the effect of which is always disastrous. The news is full of cases of men and women ruined through influences such as are spread by this play. We quarantine against physical diseases but welcome moral poisons.

A FATHER.

Corporation Laws Need Improving.

The impression left by a recent editorial in the Post-Dispatch was that corporations organized under the laws of Arizona, New Jersey and Delaware were prima facie of the wild cat variety.

The standing of a corporation and its integrity to its stockholders depends not so much upon the laws of the State granting it a charter as it does upon the men who foster the corporation. If their motives are sinister and the scheme is to swindle then the laws of Missouri offer no more protection than the laws of any other state.

Our courts are now struggling to untangle the affairs of two corporations organized under the insurance laws of Missouri—corporations that were supposed to be under the tutelage of our Insurance Department. The wreck there seems to be complete and the loss to the stockholders a total loss. The laws of Missouri afford no protection in such cases.

Again, while the laws of Missouri require that the capital stock shall be at least half paid up in "lawful money of the United States," it has frequently been held by our courts that its equivalent in value satisfies the requirements of the statute. Now this is substantially the requirement of every other state. You cannot pay up your capital stock with "stage money" any more under the laws of Arizona, New Jersey or Delaware than you can under the laws of Missouri.

The laws of Missouri give a stockholder the absolute right of examination of the books and papers of the company. I can buy one share of stock in any corporation in Missouri and demand the right of examination and enforce that demand in the courts of Missouri. I may represent a rival concern and wish to get at their business secrets. The law says you cannot question my motives. It is enough that I am a stockholder. I can thus acquire information that I can use to the disadvantage of my rival. I can pry into the whole business of the company.

The laws of Missouri give the Circuit Courts superintending control over the affairs of Missouri corporations. With a few shares of stock in a rival concern which I wish to wreck I can file a suit for a receiver. Such a suit destroys the credit of the company at once. A receiver, after long delay may be denied, but I have accomplished my purpose and ruined the company.

It is such unwise laws as this that have driven men to organize corporations under the laws of states that at least give them an even chance for life. Most corporations can be stifled in their infancy by adverse litigation, and it is because in an effort to protect the minority stockholders the laws of Missouri have opened the doors wide for such attacks, that people are afraid to get Missouri charters.

JOHN FREEMANTLE.

3000 AERIAL PATENTS.

From the Springfield Union.

Some idea of the interest taken by inventors in the science of aerial navigation is afforded by the statement from Washington that 3000 patents have been issued already on airships and aerial contrivances of various kinds. Stress is laid upon the point that the brains of the aviator must be the main dependence in all cases of successful man-flight. Hope has been expressed that some type of flying machine would be invented that would be automatically responsive to air currents in a manner to relieve the tension of the navigator and lend comparative safety and ease to the operation of the machine. If any such device is possible it is not presaged, it seems, by any of the patents yet issued.

From the New York World.

A bald-headed man approached Congressman Henry M. Goldfogle on Grand street yesterday.

"Mr. Goldfogle," he said, "I am a stranger to you, but I want to let you know that I will vote to send you back to Washington."

"Thank you."

"I want no thanks. But how long have you been bald?"

Mr. Goldfogle thought a moment.

"Since a boy, I guess," he replied.

"It's been the same with me," said the stranger, sadly. "We bald-headed men must stick together, and that's why I'm going to vote for you."

HIS VIE WOF IT.

From Tid-Bits.

Paintings were not her specialty, but as she gazed at a beautiful copy of Millet's "Gleaners" her admiration of the work called forth enthusiastic comment.

"What a wonderful picture!" she exclaimed. "And how natural it looks!"

"But what are those people doing?" she inquired, as she bent nearer to read the title. "Oh, yes, I see—gleaning millet! How perfectly fascinating!"

Koumiss.

From the New York Press.

The koumiss is made of mare's milk, made by the Tartars by a slow, tedious process. What is usually called koumiss is made by putting a tablespoonful each of sugar and brewer's yeast to the quart of fresh cow's milk. After it has fermented and frothed and worked to the full it is bottled, corked and wired and kept in a cool cellar.

The Silver Lining.

From the Chicago News.

"Oh, John! exclaimed Mrs. Shortcash, who was reading a letter, "our son has been expelled from college. Isn't it awful?"

"Oh, I don't know," answered Shortcash. "Perhaps I can pull through without making an assignment now."

Wanted the Barn.

From the Cleveland Leader.

"Gee, Si, but I wuz homesick when I went to ter th' city!"

"Gosh!" Was yer? How homesick?"

"Well, I stood on th' corner till I seen a car marked 'To the Barn' an', by gum, I took it!"

"No cheap stuff for me. Paint me a picture of a dozen eggs."

His Choice.

From the Chicago Record-Herald.

"I see your wife is wearing one of the new hobble skirts."

"Yes. She gave me my choice between letting her wear a hobble skirt or do a barefoot dance for charity."

The Pitiful Truth.

From the Atchison Globe.

A million people ask themselves this question every day: "What is the best thing to do?" And the pitiful truth is, no one knows half the time.

JUST A MINUTE.

THE VOTING LINE.

(Read Down the Line.)

and no one much is hurrying, for all the press is great. The
challenger drifts in and out without a job at stake, the fat policeman we employ day-dozes like a pup, and all the time the hoi polloi burns nervous tissue up.

Diversions of a Country Editor.

Mrs. Elisabeth Kilgore, wife of John Kilgore, thinks the Leader is about the meanest paper she ever read. She said she was real mad when her husband came home and told her he had subscribed for it. The editor of the Leader was enjoying a walk down about the Kilgore farm the other day and came across Mrs. Kilgore sitting in the yard. We asked her what she was mad about and she replied: "Why, you called us farmers skinflints just because we would not go to the Sturgeon fair every day and pay thirty-five cents a day. You are always and eternally abusing us. You say when we go out to work the roads we loaf half of the time. Yes I am mad at the paper and its editor and I'm glad you happened along so I could tell you. I feel better now since I gave you and the Leader a good raking." We enjoyed Mrs. Kilgore's talk very much. She impresses us as a very sensible woman and if she would only write for the Leader we will be able to print a better paper.—Sturgeon (Mo.) Leader.

"Did you vote dry?"
"Sh!"

Mrs. G. A. R.

Blooming like the rose, in a white veil, white lingerie dress and white kid slippers, and white silk gloves, white carnations and white umbrella, Mrs. Rachael Spires, 67 years of age, became the bride of William Ertel, aged 67, an old soldier, who has been living at 1318 North Third street. Justice Heckle performed the ceremony with great eclat.

This is Mrs. Ertel's fourth marital experience. She has had three previous husbands, and whether through coincidence, or because Mrs. Ertel has never laid aside her romance, and still feels the glamor surrounding the soldier brave, it is a fact that every one of the four men whose names she has accepted has been an old soldier. She is a woman of great vigor and has outlived all of her former husbands.—Quincy (Ill.) Herald.

Tact.

A fashionable photographer, however, has undoubtedly attained the pinnacle of tactful achievement. A woman with a decided squint came to him for a photograph.

"Will you permit me," he said promptly, "to take your portrait in profile? There is a certain shyness about one of your eyes which is as difficult in art as it is fascinating in nature."—Youth's Companion.

The Natural Deduction.

His waistcoat was wonderful.
His socks were positively superhuman.
In order to display which, his trousers were tucked up to ludicrous height.

"Lost somebody, guv'nor?" queried the youth sympathetically.

"Cat or dog dead, guv'nor?" queried the youngster.

Plain Speaking.

"I believe in calling a spade a spade," said the emphatic person.

"That's right, friend," replied Broncho Bob. "There was a man who nearly lost his life here by gettin' into a game an' tryin' to call a spade a club."—Washington Star.

His Only Hope.

An old negro was brought up before the Judge charged with chicken stealing, and when the usual question was propounded, "Guilty or not guilty?" he said: "I don't know, boss; I jest throw myself on the ignorance of the Court."—Case and Comment.

NOTES AND QUERIES.

G. B.—Air-rifle shooting prohibited.

THAD.—Eads Bridge was begun Aug. 20, 1867; opened July 4, 1874.

E. A. M.—Say somebody else's house; not somebody's else house.

OLD READER.—Niagara Falls, 5249 feet wide; height, 159 to 164.

F. A. H.—We have not the address of the "publisher of the smallest Bible in the world."

GRANDPA.—Missouri song contest closed Oct. 31. Date for decision has not been announced.

E. B. S.—Gold rings may blacken finger because of acid or some kind of medicine in the system.

L. H.—Girl-club names: Jolly Juniors, Fun and Frolic Club, Idle-Hour Social, Good Times Club.

H. A. L.—No permits for hunting on Sunday are provided for by the law forbidding hunting on Sunday.

L.—Voter in California must be 30 days in precinct, 90 days in County, 1 year in State. Divorce residence 1 year.

J. D.—The meaning of a picture representing a boy smoking and a priest with a whip is obvious. We do not recall the title.

ANXIOUS.—If shippers order, the bill of lading must be surrendered; if not, the bill of lading is not taken up when party is known.

HUNTER.—It is not supposed that any one hunts in St. Louis. To shoot within the city limits you would need permission from the Mayor.

T. M.—If the engagement is at an end the girl should return the ring. The young man who escapes marrying the girl who would in such a case keep a ring is fortunate.

J. K. W. L.—We do not know the pin with the star, crescent and skull. Except for the skull it would be an emblem of the Eastern Star or Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

P. M.—Excellent cement for crockery and glass is sol. silicate soda. It is sold as "liquid glass" at a quarter per bottle, but as "silicate soda" costs but same amount per pint at a drug store.

BURNS.—We have no record of the inscription on the banner of Peter the Hermit. When Pope Urban addressed the knights at Clermont, the cry of the host was "Deus Vult!" ("It is the will of God!")

ZERO.—Try communicating with the Prosecuting Attorney, Four Courts, in regard to the firm that requires its men to work at a temperature below zero when there is no heat in the building.

DASH.—Examination for postoffice clerk and carrier first Wednesday or Saturday after Nov. 15, at Old Postoffice, Third and Olive. Age, 18 to 45; height not less than 5 feet 4 in bare feet; weight not less than 125 pounds without coat or hat.

E. B.—There are 27 (society and other) libraries in St. Louis. To give the rules of each would require a great deal of space, which in this column is worth $10 a line. The State and United States statutes are in the Public Library, but we have not the address of any library from which law and medical books may be taken.

JONES.—Iowa is not a prohibition State. It has been described as "a prohibition State with a mulct law." This statement was made in January last. State prohibiton campaigns are now in progress and are expected to reach a decisive result within the next two years in Iowa, Florida, Kentucky, Massachusetts, Michigan, Missouri, Nebraska New Hampshire, Oregon, South Carolina, Utah, Vermont and West Virginia.

READER.—St. Charles, founded in 1769, was named Les Petites Cotes (Little Hills). Later it was given its present name in honor of Don Carlos, King of Spain. St. Louis was founded Feb. 14, 1764. St. Charles was the seat of the State Government from 1820 to 1826, while the State was waiting for the completion of the capitol at Jefferson City. The first State Legislature met in St. Louis, Sept. 20, 1820, and appointed the capital location committee.

SCHWARTZ.—Under the election laws of Missouri, a foreigner having declared his intention of becoming a citizen of the United States, or taken out his first papers, can vote after those papers are one year old, and he can vote on his first papers for four years, or until his papers are five years old, and no longer. He cannot vote on his first papers until they are one year old, nor can he vote thereon after the paper is five years old. He must then go to a court of competent jurisdiction and take out final papers.

J. L.—Whether you have recourse for shortage in depth of lot depends upon description of entire deed. For instance if same reads 150 feet to an alley and there are only 140 feet to the alley you have no recourse; or if the lot and block number is described and the depth is erroneously given there would be no recourse; so also under other circumstances there may be no recourse. Have lot surveyed; between the same and your deed the discrepancy will show. What a survey would cost depends upon location and the lot in question; from $15 up.

H. J. P.—One Representative in Congress to 194,182 population. Legislature is under no legal obligation to elect the nominee of a senatorial primary. After each decennial census the State is divided into 34 districts as nearly equal in population as may be, and each district elects a Senator to the Legislature. Under the census of 1900, the apportionment of Representatives is as follows: St. Louis City, 16; Jackson County, 6; Buchanan County, 4; Jasper County, 3; Greene and St. Louis Counties, 2 each, and the remaining 109 Counties 1 each, making a total of 142 Representatives. Counties are divided into as many districts as they have Representatives and the voters of each district elect one Representative. If, however, a County is entitled to more than 10 Representatives each district must be given not less than 2 nor more than 4 Representatives. This applies at present only to the city of St. Louis, which has six districts, four of which are each entitled to 3 Representatives, while the other two each elect 2 Representatives.

NEW ORLEANS.—Beaten biscuit: Have a block sawed from trunk of some hardwood, preferably beech, say 2½ or 3 feet in diameter and 2 feet thick. Let three or four holes be bored in the under surface, into which legs are to be driven. Place in a suitable part of the kitchen, and then put a quart of the best flour into a bowl, add a level teaspoonful of salt, a level teaspoonful of hog's lard, and add in the act of thoroughly mixing them enough cold water to make a tough dough. Dust the block on which they are to be beaten with just enough flour to prevent dough sticking to wood. Now, with rolling-pin, or, what would be better, a new baseball bat, let the mass be beaten, turning it from time to time until pieces begin to flake off and separate. Dough is now ready to be placed on biscuit board, previously dusted slightly with flour, and pieces pinched away sufficient to form biscuit of suitable size. Some prefer smaller and others larger ones—2½ to 3 inches in diameter by 1½ inches thick is a good size. The pieces are to be formed into proper shape, stuck through from top with prongs of a fork, and placed in oven heated to baking temperature. This part of the process is of great importance, since if the oven is not hot you cannot have good biscuit. The time of heating cannot be exactly stated. The dough must attain the condition named above, or the result will not be satisfactory. Any multiple of the above figures as may be desired may be used. Somebody says: For lovers of beaten biscuits I would suggest that they try my way. I make the dough as usual and when made I run it through a small clothes wringer which I keep for this purpose. I screw the wringer to the table and run the dough through about 12 or 15 times. Try this and you will be delighted with the ease with which you can make excellent biscuits.

Mrs. Solomon

Interpreted for the Post-Dispatch

By HELEN ROWLAND.

(Copyrighted, 1910, by the Press Publishing Company.)

THE Song of a wife, which is Mrs. Solomon's:

Let him praise me with the words of his mouth, for his flattery is sweeter than wine and his kisses are rarer than orchids.

Lo, my Beloved, thy hair is as stubble, and in the morning it standeth aloft, as a shorn wheat field.

Behold, thou art a collection of HABITS. Yea, unto these thou art more CONSTANT than the family cat.

Whatsoever thou hast done BEFORE that shalt thou do forever and in the same way.

Thou kissest me once in the morning, once in the evening and TWICE upon Christmas Day.

Thou clingest unto an old pipe as unto thy REPUTATION. Thou callest every woman by the SAME pet name.

Lo, what would my Beloved BE without his habits? Even as a doggie's tail which hath lost its wag!

But thy HEART, oh, my Beloved, is full of lightning changes. Its capacity is inexhaustible.

The memory of yesterday's kiss is unto thee as the memory of yesterday's dinner—sweet, but not satisfying.

Behold, thou hast placed Mrs. upon my name; thou hast glorified me with a wedding ring; thou affordest me a steady income!

Therefore, am I become thy doormat. Yea, I am as thy footstool.

I shall darn thy socks with rejoicing, and the replacing of thy buttons shall be my delight.

All the days of thy life shall I clean thy safety razor and put the buttons in thy shirts.

Then, cast thine ashes over my dressing table and cover my carpets with cigar stumps. Place thy wet shoes upon my counterpane and button my frocks up the back CROOKED.

Let the awnings of my house be burned and my lace curtains consumed with fire. I shall not murmur.

What the New York Women Are Wearing

Hints of Style Seen on the Streets and in Restaurants by a Competent Observer.

A STROLL through the uptown shopping district with an eye to fashion hints reveals the fact that beautiful simplicity is the keynote of this season's styles, says a New York fashion writer.

Dark shades predominated. Of course, black was in the lead but blue was a close second.

Even though early in the season, there were many black velvet and velveteen suits in evidence, which shows the trend of fashion.

Handsome broadcloths were seen, and a favorite trimming, that is quite new, is the three or four bias folds from two to three inches wide, set at the foot of the skirt.

Of course, skirts are very narrow, but the majority of them gave the wearer a chic appearance. Quite a number of suits had the plaits inserted at the side, which gave just a nice fulness, and these are probably the forerunners of a style that will soon be popular.

Suits of cloth-back satin that have had much a vogue in Paris were numerous. A particularly pretty one had the short jacket trimmed with fur, which will no doubt be a favorite combination as the season advances.

The woman with a narrow tailored skirt and the new twenty-six or twenty-eight inch jacket looked extremely natty, but there were very many conservative women on the street, as was evidenced by the graceful 34-inch coat.

In an automobile was noticed the wife of a prominent politician. She was completely enveloped in a charming reseda automobile coat. The hood was drawn over the little auto cap, and the bright shirred satin facing was strikingly becoming to the little lady.

In the restaurant veiled effects held full sway. Evidently there is no decrease in this vogue. On the contrary, it appears to be growing more popular. In fact, a new idea noted in a striking restaurant gown is the double veiling—that is, the dress was of sapphire blue satin. The first transparency, a chiffon tunic, was elaborately trimmed with broad bandings in glittering Oriental effects that were beautifully toned down by the outer tunic of soft black silky net.

Another new feature was seen in a handsome lace jacket in the same color. This is a new style note direct from Paris, where these lace jackets as well as the novelty scarfs, are fastened directly to the gown. With this costume was worn a gray satin covered hat with an extremely low, round crown, veiled in chiffon and caught at intervals by tiny pink rosebuds. The facing was of black velvet, and from the bandeau at the back three handsome gray plumes fell gracefully to the shoulder.

There were several of the new peplum waists seen, a particularly pretty one being of silk crepe handsomely embroidered and worn with a soft, wide girdle.

One of this season's debutantes was attired in a simple gown of bright green satin, veiled with a beautiful Scotch plaid silk voile that had blue as its dominant shade. The effect, while decidedly new, is most charming, and it was especially so upon the pretty, youthful wearer.

Fashionable Play and Dress Hats for Little Girls

CHILDREN'S hats this winter are "joys" and I could spend hours framing their dear little faces in the filmy ruffles. "Saucer eyes" and frills always did go hand in hand.

A—The first little hat illustrated is a play hat of velvet, which may be made to match the coat. It is a tiny mushroom turnedd up in the front and trimmed with a bow of satin ribbon to one side. The facing depends on the color of the hat, but light colors are always more becoming to baby faces.

B—The second hat is a "mob cap" of blue velvet and lace. The crown is a Tam O'Shanter for the baby; blue velvet and two little ruffles of fine thread lace are pleated around the face. A wreath of pink and blue silk buds made up with maiden-hair fern encircle the crown. These wreaths will be made to order in nearly all of the shops at the ribbon counter in any color that you desire.

C—The third hat is white beaver; a mushroom with a broad flat crown. A three-inch band of Alice blue velvet goes around the crown, ending in a flat bow in front. Toward the back, at one side, is a cluster of roses in the tones of Alice blue, pink, yellow and silver.

THE CHANZA

By T. R. Sullivan

AUTHOR OF "THE COURAGE OF CONVICTION," ETC.

WHEN Dr. Graham Frankland, the distinguished anatomist, began his short address before the Scientist Club, on that December evening, none of the hundred members present could have foreseen the inexplicable and uncanny nature of his subject. Before this intelligent and animated company of his confreres, Dr. Frankland plunged abruptly into Amazonian wilds, to recount the traditional custom of a fierce Indian tribe, said to have existed there for many hundred years. According to his statement, it was their barbarous practice to decapitate hostile chiefs slain in battle, afterward subjecting the heads to an unknown process which, preserving the features intact, reduced them to the size of a small apple, without shriveling or even wrinkling the skin in the least. The process, whatever its character, must have been a rapid one; for nine days after the victory the head, thus dwarfed but not defaced, was set upon a pole at a sacrificial rite, there to be harangued and insulted by the slayer. Another chief, detailed, as it were, for defense, impersonated the victim, making the bitterest retort to each abusive word. At the end of this curious dialogue the head was taken down, the mouth was sewed up, that it might never speak again, and the grim trophy became an object of reverence, worshipped thereafter as an idol. Removal of it was a grave misfortune; since if it were stolen and passed from hand to hand, the worst luck inevitably attended its possessor. A head so treated, degraded and revered was called a "chanza."

This was the pith of Dr. Frankland's interesting if somewhat improbable tale. After unfolding it in general terms, he supplied certain details, by way of confirmation. Declaring that several specimens of the chanza in the past had been transmitted to civilized countries as curios by missionaries and otherwise, he displayed photographs of two such examples still existent in a foreign museum. While these were handed about among the audience for close inspection, the anatomist prepared his final coup. From a silken bag he suddenly drew forth his own specimen, lately acquired—a head, conforming in every particular to his description, perfectly preserved in little, with thick black hair a foot and a half in length.

A ripple of excitement spread through the room. The doctor's well-calculated dramatic surprise had been entirely successful. Smiling, he went on to say that at first sight, believing the head to be a clever fraud, a mere image with no real relation to life, he had tested it in more ways than one. The microscope soon showed conclusively that the hair was not inserted, but had actually grown from the scalp. He had proceeded, next, to dissection. The orifice of the neck was closed by a mass of dark, resinous substance, hardened by time. Upon removing this he found a scrap of white paper lined with blue, which proved to be the piece of a modern envelope. Upon this were scrawled indecipherable hieroglyphics. Below was stuffed a lump of soft cotton, in which lay entangled fragments of safety matches. These seemed, at first, to be splints, supporting the nose; but further examination disproved that theory. The doctor decided that the bits of wood had been caught up accidentally in the cotton, which was pronounced by an expert to be Peruvian, of rare quality. To reconcile these proofs of civilization with the ancient custom had then become the investigator's task. The Indian chiefs now living admit the performance of such a sacrifice centuries ago, but assert that it has ceased to exist. The tribe, however, is a large and scattered one; and the doctor believed that the rite still holds—in remote sections, at least. In his opinion, the head was a genuine chanza, but modern, a trophy set up within 20 years.

"Very well done," whispered one of the audience in a remote corner of the room to his nearest neighbor. "I should not have expected that from Frankland."

The speaker was George Matlock, the noted novelist, a keen, restless, dark-eyed bachelor of 50, in whose nature things went by contraries. His attitude toward the world was that of a thorough skeptic, shrewd, adroit, incisive; when the door of his library closed upon him, he became a dreamer, blessed with a vivid imagination, a subtle fancy and a tender heart. His vein of originality, though not vast, had never been overworked. He had won fame's reward early, and still they showed no signs of waning, thanks, so some of his envious rivals murmured, to his less estimable qualities—to what they called the business end of him. For, despite his success, perhaps in part because of it, he was not loved among his fellows.

Philip Armistead, in whom Matlock had confided, devoted his spare hours to small excursions into the field of fiction. The Scientist Club, which he now saw for the first time in session, interested him profoundly, as well as significantly; his very presence among these men of renown being a forward step in his ambition.

Of Matlock, Armistead had the disciple's awe, the disciple's envy. Matlock stood securely where he desired to stand. He had watched the proceedings intently and had been particularly impressed by the queer story of the chanza, with no suggestion of that possible double-dealing on Frankland's part which Matlock by his whispered word implied.

"You don't believe it, then?" Armistead responded.

"Do you?" asked the other, shrugging his shoulders.

"I neither believe nor disbelieve," said Armistead. "If Dr. Frankland"—

"Bah!" Matlock interrupted, carelessly; "an ingenious hoax, no more. We shall force Frankland to confess it; you'll see."

They relapsed into silence, while the object of their comment, passing from one hand to another, came slowly toward them. Matlock followed it closely with his eyes, a circumstance which Armistead, who had swiftly engendered an idea of using the chanza as material for a story, noted in a kind of jealous pang. The eager look, so much at variance with the expressed indifference, forced upon him a suspicion that the master, struck by the same thought of the chanza's literary possibilities, had mentally appropriated it, and was now trying to throw him off the scent. The suspicion, once formed, grew apace, and as they waited on, still silent, he studied Matlock with catlike intensity, that no sign of proof or disproof might escape him.

At last the man in front turned with a smile and gave the head to Matlock. He held it lightly in one hand and tapped it with the knuckles of the other, for an instant only. Then, superbly apathetic, he held it out to Armistead.

"There you are!" said he.

As Armistead's fingers closed upon the grewsome relic a sudden chill shot through them; not from the thing itself, which felt like parchment and looked like darkened terra cotta; but from an immediate conviction that these fine, handsome features, diminutive as they were, had once been flesh and blood; that life had once indued with sight the half-closed eyes. In the next moment he felt as if some spark of life still remained there, as if the thin lips might move and speak were he to cut the thread that bound them. He turned the head, and the touch of the long hair upon his hand induced a shudder. Another moment passed, in which all this repugnance gave way unaccountably to fascination. He would gladly now have taken time for scrutiny of the minutest sort. But the man next him stirred impatiently, and just then upon his shoulder came a warning pressure. He glanced down, and saw there a strong, dark hand, wearing a ring of strange design, its beaten gold and enamel shaped into the device of a harpy-like figure—a bird with a human head. Mechanically he passed the chanza on to his expectant neighbor, and turned to see who had given him the signal. Behind stood a group of men, one of whom drew back, avoiding Armistead's look; and his was the only unfamiliar face.

Dallas, indeed, was one of the group. Armistead, however, knew his face well enough, and this he was about to say; but the stranger had moved away out of sight, making further inquiry futile at the moment; so he merely murmured a word of thanks for the superfluous information.

"Well, what do you think of the chanza now?" Matlock demanded, sportively.

"That there is probably nothing in it," replied Armistead, obeying an instinctive impulse to conceal the peculiar spell that its nothingness had wrought upon him.

Then came a general displacement of the audience in quick response to a hospitable word from the supper room. Armistead rose and slipped off into the crowd, disregarding Matlock's laugh of satisfaction, which would surely have confirmed his own suspicious forecast of the novelist's purpose to make the chanza profitable. But Armistead no longer concerned himself with that. He was intent now upon finding the stranger whose hand had touched him so insistently as clearly to convey some warning or command. He had caught a mere glimpse of the man's face, but would identify it, of course. Even the hand—a left one, with the grotesque ornament upon its third finger—he could not fail to recognize. He hurried from room to room, brushing by acquaintances or nodding to them abstractedly, engrossed in a vain search. That strange face was nowhere to be seen.

Love and Matrimony

By BETTY VINCENT.

GIRLS, if you are engaged to marry a man, he has every right to ask you not to have other men calling upon you. If you love a man enough to marry him you should not care to receive the attentions of other men.

This does not include old friends of the family, or young men who have known you from childhood. Of course, you cannot drop the acquaintance of everyone because you are engaged. But these old friends should employ some tact in keeping up their friendship with you. They cannot expect to monopolize much of your time and they ought to realize they can no longer ask you to go to parties and the theater alone with them.

The better way is to have your fiance meet all your old friends as soon as possible. Then you can occasionally have jolly evenings, with your fiance present. No reasonable man would object to this. But it is very far from unreasonable for a man to ask the girl he is going to marry not to receive the attentions of other men when he is not there.

A Church Society.

A. N. writes: "The church to which I belong has a society, of which I am a member. A young lady I admire very much is also a member, but nobody has ever introduced us to each other. Would it be proper for me to go up and speak to her? We are both members of the same church and society."

It would be better if you found some young man in the congregation who knows the young lady to introduce you.

He Loves Her.

H. W. writes: "A young man has been calling on me frequently for about a year. He told me many times he loved me and recently asked if I loved him. I would not tell him that I did, although I do care very much. Did I do right?"

I cannot understand why you did not tell the young man you love him if you do. He evidently cares for you, if he has told you so many times.

Admires Her.

D. G. writes: "I have met a young lady through business and admire her very much. Her business frequently brings her into my office. Now, we have no mutual friends, but I would like to know her better, so I thought I would ask her to go to theater with me."

I think under the circumstances you might ask the young lady to go to the theater with you, although I do not usually approve of mixing one's business and social life.

A Present.

M. B. writes: "I am acquainted with a young man who wishes to make me a present. Would it be proper for me to accept it? I am not in love with the young man, and we are not engaged."

If the gift is one of books, candy or flowers it will be perfectly proper for you to accept it. Anything more substantial is not considered correct.

AN EARLY BIRD.

"I DINED with Henry James, the American novelist," said the magazine editor. "He said a New York multi-millionaire got converted one night at a revival meeting, and, standing up in his place, the rich convert declared that his conversion was retroactive, and he purposed to make restitution to any one he had ever wronged.

"Well, about 2 o'clock that morning the millionaire was awakened by a long ring at the bell.

"'Who's that?' he said.

"'I am Thomas J. Griggs,' was the reply. 'I heard about your conversion and I'd like you to pay me back $200,000 you cheated me out of in the U. B. D. receivership.'

"'All right. I'll pay you,' said the millionaire. 'But why the deuce,' he added, angrily, 'do you want to ring me up at this hour?'

"'Well, you see,' was the reply, 'I thought I'd come early and avoid the rush.'"—Washington Star.

SHORTHAND COURSE FREE

The American Institute, a private school located at 3422 Hartford st., making a specialty of teaching "Syllabic Shorthand," has decided, in order to more thoroughly introduce this remarkable system, to offer a complete course of instruction free to the young person sending in the largest list of words derived from the words "SYLLABIC SHORTHAND."

The sender of the second largest list will receive a credit check for $15 to apply on a course. Senders of the third three largest lists will receive a credit check for $10 each, and persons sending in the 10 next largest lists will receive a credit check for $5 each. Prizes are not transferable.

Contestants in making up their lists must number their words, and must be careful not to use in one word any letter or letters oftener than appearing in the two words, "SYLLABIC SHORTHAND."

Ambitious young people have much to gain in taking advantage of this exceptional offer. With a little effort they may obtain one of these valuable prizes, enabling them to acquire free, or at a considerable reduction, a knowledge of the most complete, comprehensive and practical system of shorthand ever devised. This contest closes Nov. 15, 1910. Address all lists to AMERICAN INSTITUTE, 3422 HARTFORD ST., ST. LOUIS. (c83)

STOCKS BREAK SHARPLY AFTER AN EARLY RISE

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.

Stocks showed only small gains at the opening of the speculation today, disappointing the traders who had been universally bullish on the prospects of a Democratic victory.

London sent over a higher range of prices on American before the local opening, the gains averaging a full point on some of the high-priced issues. The demand in the foreign market came largely from this side, many of the Wall street houses remaining open all night to permit their customers to make purchases abroad. The London settlement begins today and loaning rates show a firmer tendency than over the preceding settlement.

Wall Street now has to demonstrate that its views on the political situation have been correct. Prices have risen upward of 15 points on the favorite issues and held firm at the high level, mostly on the theory that a Democratic victory, with a Democratic House and a Republican Senate at Washington, would tie up adverse corporation legislation for two years to come and be a bull card.

The "street" has entirely overlooked one thing: that the Democratic victory means a certain revival of the tariff question as a leading issue. In the face of the landslide, the Republican party, to re-establish its waning popularity, will be forced into further action in tariff revision. Nothing is so effective in checking bullish speculation and casting a damper over new industrial enterprises as tariff agitation. For this reason it will be interesting to observe just how far Wall Street has been correct in banking on speculative prosperity, with a Democratic victory as its steppingstone to success.

The fallacy of Wall street's position in the recent bull speculation was proven in the second hour, when heavy selling orders appeared and the market started rapidly downward. On the decline in U. S. Steel enormous blocks were thrown over, one run on the tape showing: 4000 shares at 80¾, 15,000 at 80¾, 16,000 at 80⅝, and 200 at 80⅝. The blocks of Union Pacific and Reading met on the decline were also unusually heavy. The stock sales in the first hour totaled 301,800 shares. The market was irregular at the noon hour and only slightly lower and only slightly above the extreme low level.

Prices continued their plunge downward in the late market and losses ran over two points on the standard issues. There was little if any support in the market. The close was irregular at the lower level.

DETAILED REPORT OF DAY'S TRADING ON WALL STREET

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The expected after-election advances were shown by the opening prices of stocks today, but they were most conspicuous in the less active issues. The usual market leaders were affected by realizing sales, 2000 shares of Union Pacific selling at 177 and 177¼, compared with 177⅛ at Monday's closing, and 7000 of United States Steel at 81½ and 81¼, compared with 81⅛ on Monday. Southern Pacific opened down a point and Amalgamated Copper, Chesapeake & Ohio, Virginia-Carolina Chemical and American Woolen large fractions. Southern Railway rose 1¼ and the preferred 1½, and Anaconda, American Beet Sugar and National Railways of Mexico second preferred large fractions. The dealings were not in large volume, and they diminished after the opening orders were executed.

The market fluctuated nervously for a while and then broke sharply. Severe liquidation in the fertilizer stocks and realizing in the active issues discouraged bullish efforts. Virginia-Carolina Chemical receded 3⅝, Wisconsin Central 2, Southern Pacific and Western Union 1¼, Union Pacific 1⅜ and Great Northern preferred, Reading, New York Central, Chesapeake and Norfolk & Western, American Locomotive, American Sugar, Woolen preferred and United States Steel.

The uncertain fluctuations in statistics on Monday after an advance carried nearly to the election period gave place today to acute weakness under the burden of realizing sales. The monetary and labor prospect added depressing influences. Reading and Southern Pacific were forced two points below Monday's closing. Union Pacific fell 1⅝ and U. S. Steel 1½. These speculative leaders determined the course of the whole market and losses of 1 or more were common. Missouri Pacific fell 2, Great Western preferred 1⅝, Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie 1⅝, and Northern Pacific and Wabash preferred 1¼. A substantial fractional rally was followed by dullness. Bonds were irregular.

The announcement of the passing of the dividend of Sloss-Sheffield Steel depressed that stock three points and stopped the recovery elsewhere. There was a sudden fall of four points in Missouri Pacific on largely increased dealings. Minneapolis & St. Louis yielded 1½.

SLOSS CUTS DIVIDEND.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The directors of the Sloss-Sheffield Steel and Iron Co. today passed a dividend on common stocks which has been at the rate of 1¼ per cent on the quarterly.

COTTON IS IRREGULAR ON THE GINNERS' REPORT

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The cotton market opened steady at a decline of 2 points on Dec., but 1 to 3 points higher on later months. Cables were better than due, but the census figures showing 7,339,000 bales ginned to Nov. 1, were a little larger than had been expected and proved the signal for heavy realizings. Trading was sensationally active and prices irregular at the decline.

Foreigners were large buyers here, but with Wall street, local and Western houses heavy sellers on the large ginning figures, prices continued to ease off during the middle of the morning, and before midday showed at net loss of 16@22 points. There was a rally of 3 or 4 points from this level later, but the market was very nervous and unsettled, and it looked as if crop views were being increased, although the total beginning to Nov. 1 was less than 5 per cent in excess of last year, and crop estimates recently issued have called for a yield of about a million bales in excess of last year's crop.

Estimated receipts at the ports today, 50,000 bales, against 53,653 bales last week and 57,202 bales last year. For the week, 375,000 bales, against 390,584 bales last week and 377,388 bales last year. Todays' receipts at New Orleans, 12,244 bales, against 18,995 bales last year.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 9.—Closing: Cotton spot in fair demand; prices 8 points higher. American middling fair, 8.48d; good middling, 8.10d; middling, 7.96d; low middling, 7.76d; good ordinary, 7.50d; ordinary, 7.25d. The sales of the day were 8000 bales, of which 500 were for speculation and export, and included 6900 American. Receipts, 47,000 bales, including 40,400 American.

Futures opened quiet and closed feverish. Nov., 7.82d; Nov.-Dec., 7.76½d; Dec.-Jan., 7.76d; Jan.-Feb., 7.77d; Feb.-March, 7.78d; March-April, 7.80d; April-May, 7.80d; May-June, 7.80d; June-July, 7.79½d; July-Aug., 7.77d.

Government Figures Indicate the Largest Yield on Record.

The Crop Reporting Board of the Department of Agriculture at Washington estimates the total yield of corn at 3,121,381,000 bu, against a final yield of 2,772,376,000 bu in 1909, 2,668,651,000 bu in 1908 and a previous record crop in 1906 of 2,927,416,091 bu.

Supplies of the 1909 crop in farmers' hands on Nov. 1 are 4.3 per cent, or 119,056,000 bu, against 79,779,000 bu or 3.0 per cent in 1909, and 71,124,000 bu, or 2.7 per cent, in 1908, and 4.1 per cent the average of similar estimates for the past ten years.

The average weight per bu of wheat is 58.5 pounds, against 58.0 pounds in 1909, 58.03 in 1908 and 57.4 the 10-year average.

The average weight of oats is 32.7 pounds, against 32.7 in 1909, 29.8 in 1908 and 30.9 the 10-year average.

The average weight of barley is 46.9 pounds.

LIVE STOCK

NATIONAL STOCKYARDS, Ill., Nov. 9.—Comparative receipts:

| | Today. | Week Ago. | Year Ago. |
|---|---|---|---|
| Cattle | 6,000 | 5,400 | 5,100 |
| Hogs | 8,000 | 7,100 | 9,800 |
| Sheep | 4,000 | 3,400 | 1,600 |
| Horses and mules | 325 | 300 | 250 |

NATIVE CATTLE—Receipts were liberal, in fact running above expectations. Some trains were late getting in. There was a large proportion of steers among the arrivals, the bulk of them being medium to ordinary in quality. A bunch of choice yearlings sold up to $7.35. Market on cheaper grades of steers and yearlings ruled steady, but the general run of steers proved slow sale and about a dime lower. Cows and heifers were offered freely. The former evinced considerable weakness while heifers held about steady. Veals sold strong with a top of $9.50. Bulls remained unchanged, while the trade in stock cattle was quiet.

SOUTHERN CATTLE—The run was unusually light amounting to only 400 head. The elections probably had something to do with shutting down shipments from Arkansas and territory due south of this point. It is apparent that the Oklahoma movement in so far as grass cattle are concerned is about over for this season. A small lot of Texas heifers sold today at $4.15 while cows from the same section brought $3.85. Bulk of the day's offerings in the quarantine division consisted of Arkansas mixed stock that sold about steady.

HOGS—The downward trend of the hog trade, which started yesterday morning shortly after the market opened, continued today, and prices this morning were 40c lower than the best time yesterday. The top today was $8.15, against $8.55 yesterday. The market was the lowest since the early part of the year, and on about the same basis as this time last year. The bulk of the hogs of all weights sold at $7.75@8.05. The market was very draggy all day, and at noon only a small proportion of the receipts had been sold. Heavy and plain mixed hogs were dull, as the packers were very bearish. Plain mixed and heavy hogs sold from $7.65@7.90. Little pigs around 100 lbs and under were poor sellers.

SHEEP—The sheep trade was a dime lower on both sheep and lambs, but there was a right good demand, and the market was well cleaned up at the close of the day. Two loads of good native lambs brought $6.70, which was the top of the market, while the best sheep sold at $4. A string of Western ewes sold at $3.50. Stockers were very slow sale and slightly lower. Bucks were on a steady basis and selling at $3.

HORSES AND MULES—While the horse market showed activity and was fairly well attended by buyers, prices suffered a sharp decline over those of last week. The thin, plain, common kinds sold at $15@20 off per head today. The better kinds selling at $10@15 lower than for the past few weeks. There are approximately 350 head of horses of a mixed variety offered for today and tomorrow's auctions. Fresh horse receipts for the day approximated 125 head. The mule market remains active only on the very best kinds of fat cotton mules. There is little demand for other kinds, with the exception of a light number of inquiries for the best kinds of miners and surgar mules. There is no material change of prices on quality on these kind of mules. Fresh mule receipts for the day approximated 200 head.

STORK MAYOR OF ALTON IS ELECTED TO STATE SENATE

Loss of Home Town Credited to Labor Unions; Other Suburban Results.

Edmond Beall, stork Mayor of Alton, was elected to the Illinois State Senate Tuesday on the Republican ticket from the Forty-seventh District.

Beall lost his home town by 105 votes, it being carried by his Democratic opponent, Attorney C. W. Terry of Edwardsville. The vote in Alton on the senatorship was 1293 for Beall and 1398 for Terry. Beall's loss of Alton is accredited to labor union's, which, it is said, were hostile to him because of his attitude on the strike among the building trades prevailing there. Churches also opposed him, clergymen advising voters to support the prohibition candidate.

Other Results.

Norman Flagg and J. G. Bardill, Republicans, both of Madison County, were re-elected to the lower house of the Legislature from the Forty-seventh District. The entire Republican county ticket, except G. Frank Crowe of Alton for Sheriff, was elected. Crowe was beaten by 250 votes by H. Simon Henry, a saloon keeper of Peters, Ill. Simons formerly was a coal miner and had the support of the miners.

The Alton vote on the county ticket was as follows: Probate Judge, J. P. Streuber (Rep.), 1351, and James A. Lynn (Dem.), 950; County Judge, J. E. Hillskoetter (Rep.), 1188, and John Eeck (Dem.), 832; Probate Clerk, J. B. Coppinger (Rep.), 1355, and Elmer J. Gaylord (Dem.), 844; County Clerk, Harry Mackinaw (Rep.), 1655, and Raymond Crawford (Dem.), 1010; Sheriff, G. Frank Crowe (Rep.), 1563, and H. Simon Henry (Dem.), 1120; Treasurer, Fred A. Eisele (Rep.), 1395, and George Riebler (Dem.), 1061; County Superintendent of Schools, John U. Uzzell (Rep.), 1372, and Robert L. Lowry (Dem.), 1167.

LOCAL TRADERS HAD ELECTION WELL DISCOUNTED

ST. LOUIS CLEARING HOUSE STATEMENT.

| | Clearings. | Balances. |
|---|---|---|
| Today | $16,925,763 | $1,031,496 |
| Last week | 12,990,578 | 1,486,891 |
| Increase | 3,935,185 | |
| Decrease | | 455,395 |

Local securities apparently had the defeat of the prohibition amendment fairly well discounted in advance, for with the exception of a slight further improvement in Brewery bonds to $94, the general list showed little change. The failure of the long heralded advance in Wall street to materialize also had a depressing effect on local sentiment.

United Railways preferred sold fractionally lower at $43 and the common was offered at $11. The bonds were inactive.

National Candy common was firm at $20.62½ and $20.50. The bond list was quiet and steady throughout.

GINNER'S REPORT.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—The Census Bureau report at 10 o'clock this morning shows 7,339,983 bales of cotton, counting round as half bales, ginned from the growth of 1910 to Nov. 1, compared with 7,017,849 for 1909, 8,191,557 for 1908 and 6,128,562 for 1907.

Round bales included this year are 81,187, compared with 109,621 for 1909, 149,866 for 1908 and 125,785 for 1907.

| STATES. | 1910. |
|---|---|
| Alabama | 747,162 |
| Arkansas | 323,674 |
| Florida | 28,287 |
| Georgia | 1,241,138 |
| Louisiana | 154,756 |

| South Carolina | 729,023 |
| Tennessee | 129,781 |
| All other states | 24,838 |

SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The Southern Railway is doing exceptionally well. The net earnings in the first three months of the new fiscal year amount to $4,230,430, against $4,130,196 in the same time of 1909, $3,772,082 in 1908 and $2,859,559 in 1907. If this keeps up the company ought to be able to resume the 5 per cent dividend on its preferred stock, which was stopped in 1907, as the new year's earnings forecast a net of over 10 per cent on the preferred stock. The ratification, by the Interstate Commerce Commission, of the advance in freight rates made in 1908, has had a beneficial effect on the company's shares.

FOREIGN NEWS AIDS BEARS TO DEPRESS WHEAT

Cables Are Lower and Weekly Crop Summary Favorable.

Wheat was weak and lower today on general selling, both in local and foreign markets. Cables were bearish and the foreign crop summary favorable. A report of too much rain in North Argentine, where grain has, until recently, been suffering from drouth, was ridiculed by the trade.

Liverpool wheat prices were weak and lower on general selling influenced by a decline of 1⅛c in the Winnipeg market, Tuesday, a poor foreign inquiry for parcels and cargoes and a quiet demand for spot grain. Corn in Liverpool was weak on poor speculative support.

Liverpool spot wheat closed unchanged to ½d lower, futures ⅛@¼d lower; spot corn, ½d up to ¼d lower, futures ½@¾d lower. Paris wheat, ¾@1c lower; flour, ½@1½c lower. Antwerp wheat unchanged. Berlin, ⅝c lower and Budapest ¼c lower.

The movement of wheat in the Northwest continues light, but so far has not held the stocks of these markets down, for the latest figures show their increase for the first three months is nearly 3,000,000 bu larger than for the same period last year. This, too, with almost 15,000,000 bu less wheat arriving at these markets. This shows that the milling and shipping at these two points were much smaller than last year, for the same time last year the amount indicated nearly 18,000,000 bu.

During October the receipts at Minneapolis and Duluth were 16,561,000 bu and for the first three months 46,837,000 bu and these markets' stocks increased for the three months 11,161,000 bu.

Last year the receipts at these markets were 29,806,000 bu for October and 61,500,000 bu for three months, and their stocks for three months were 8,217,000 bu.

The corn market reflected pressure also, the mild weather over the belt being favorable, while the Government crop report, to be issued after the market's close today, is expected to show a record-breaking yield of over 3,000,000,000 bu, and supplies in farmers' hands on Nov. 1 were above last year's total of 79,779,000 bu. Oats were quiet and fractionally lower in sympathy with corn.

Minneapolis wheat receipts today, 507 cars, against 199 last week, 385 last year and 295 two years ago. Duluth received 182 cars, against 132 last week, 212 last year and 340 two years ago. Winnipeg had 466, against 459 last year. Minneapolis wheat receipts increased 275,000 bu in four days.

Chicago stocks of wheat decreased 205,000 bu for the week, the total being 10,892,000 bu. Corn decreased 88,000 bu to 1,298,000 bu. Oats decreased 700,000 bu to 10,988,000 bu.

Kansas City wheat receipts today 195,600 bu against 170,100 bu last year; shipments 205,200 bu, against 141,750 bu last year.

Local wheat receipts today 149,619 bu, or 1964 sacks, 99 cars local, 33 through; last year, 126,601 bu, or 267 sacks, 109 cars local, 7 through.

Local corn receipts today 43,680 bu, or 192 sacks, 25 cars local, 11 through; last year, 94,600 bu, or 68 cars local, 18 through.

Local oats receipts today, 105,400 bu, or 38 cars local, 24 through; last year, 94,400 bu, or 51 cars local, 8 through.

Total primary wheat receipts today 1,483,468 bu, against 2,433,582 bu last year; shipments, 856,810 bu, against 2,053,633 bu last year.

Bardstreet's showed wheat east of the Rockies for the week increased 398,000 bu, Canada decreased 805,000 bu, United States and Canada increased 1,203,000 bu, Europe and afloat increased 1,303,000 bu, total increase 2,506,000 bu. Corn for the week decreased 551,000 bu, oats 982,000 bu. The world's available wheat supply is now 40,366,000 bu, against 40,120,000 bu last week and 29,475,000 bu last year. Corn, 2,976,000 bu, against 2,423,000 bu last year; Oats, 16,556,000 bu, against 13,808,000 bu last year.

Clearances of wheat and flour for two days, 596,000 bu; corn, 110,000 bu; oats, 100 bu. Duluth wheat stocks increased 94,000 bu in two days.

Cash wheat closed ⅛@1c lower all around; demand quiet.

Cash corn stronger to ½c up and in demand.

Cash oats strong, ½c up for white; good demand; mixed, firm for No. 2, but other grades steady.

THE WISE MAN.

THERE was a man in our street
And he was wondrous wise;
He bought ten thousand U. S. Steel,
And held it for a rise.
But when he found the stock had dropped,
With all his might and main
He bought one hundred thousand more

The brokers sang with mirth;
And one and all declared the price
Much less than Steel was worth!
Rumors of extra dividends,
They made our senses reel—
Meantime, this wondrous wi-i-ise man
Had sold out all his Steel.
—The Ticker.

STANARD OIL.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9—The shares of the Standard Oil Co. have been selling in the outside securities market around 620, the highest level reached in several months. This represents a gain of about 20 points since the Standard Oil Co. announced that it would lower prices in order to maintain its share of the business abroad.

The strength of the stock is probably due to the fact that the directors will meet this months for the purpose of declaring a quarterly dividend of $10 a share, and three months later a dividend of $15 a share, making disbursements of $25,000,000 within a period of about four months.

AMERICAN STOCKS IN LONDON

LONDON, Nov. 9.—American securities firm and from 1 to 2 points higher today. Trading was active during the first hour and the opening gains were well maintained.

New York accepted London's level in the early afternoon, but selling from the same quarter wiped out most of the gains in the late trading and made the closing easy.

YOUNG MOTHERS

The greatest crisis in a woman's life is when first she becomes a mother. All the physical strength of her nature is demanded at such times, and it is necessary that her system be thoroughly prepared for the event. Mother's Friend is woman's safest reliance; it is a medicine for external use, composed of oils and other ingredients which assist nature in all necessary physical changes of the system. Its regular use prepares the muscles and tendons for the unusual strain, aids in expanding the skin and flesh fibres, and strengthens the tissues. Mother's Friend leaves the mother in such healthful condition that her recovery is always rapid. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for our free book for expectant mothers.

Women Like Burke Bros'. Man-Tailored Skirts

For more reasons than would go into this advertisement. One good and big reason is that Burke Bros. are on to their job. They know how to make Skirts. That is their business. That is what counts in selling goods. We believe in lots of sales and small profits. That again is what counts. We solicit your trade with the understanding that we will give you the best value for your money and a square deal from start to finish. You don't have to buy ready-made Skirts nor look like a ready-made woman when you can have a dandy Skirt made for $6.50 and a beaut for $8.50. These prices mean the cloth, findings and making. We guarantee these prices are less than half of what you would pay for Skirts as good as ours elsewhere. This is no bluff, but facts. Hustle to our place and see for yourself.

We make the best Maternity Skirts on earth.

PLAN TO ANNEX PANAMA DENIED, AS IS ORDERED

Document Charges Story to "Malicious Mendacity of Yellow Journalism."

PANAMA, Nov. 9.—Charles Campbell, secretary of the American legation here and charge d'affaires during the absence of Minister Thomas C. Dawson in Nicaragua to look into the financial condition of that republic, delivered to the Government of the republic of Panama Monday this communication:

"I am in receipt of special instructions from my Government, authorizing me to emphatically deny that the President of the Government of the United States entertains any such intentions against the integrity of the republic of Panama as have gained currency. My Government earnestly desires that no credence should be given at any time to the malicious mendacity of yellow journalism."

This communication is not taken more seriously than was the cable received from Carlos C. Arosemena, Panama Minister in Washington, in which he stated on the authority of Mr. Taft that neither Mr. Taft nor the Government of the United States has now or ever had "any intention of trying to annex Panama."

Case of Richard D. Marsh Cited.

The skepticism with which the Washington denials are viewed is not lessened by the recent experience of Richard D. Marsh, until lately secretary of legation here. Notwithstanding the State Department's repudiation of Mr. Marsh's interference in behalf of the election of Samuel Lewis, William Nelson Cromwell's candidate, to the presidency of Panama, everybody here is convinced that Washington initiated the scheme and then made Mr. Marsh the scapegoat when he failed. The fact is that at least half a dozen persons saw Mr. Marsh's instructions, which stated, among other things, that the Government of the United States would be pleased if Mr. Lewis were to be elected. It is also known here that, although Mr. Marsh was recalled, he was not disgraced, and that he is still an official of the State Department in good standing in Washington.

Mr. Campbell refused today to say whether the State Department instructed him to use the terms "yellow journal" and "malicious mendacity."

The New York World and Post-Dispatch correspondent talked with many prominent Panamanians, including some former high officials, and with scarcely an exception they all admit that Panama's present status is impossible. The expenses of the Government are greater than the revenues and the administration is incompetent.

Important business interests generally recognize the instability of the republic and would welcome either annexation by the United States as a territory or a definite understanding, eliminating the turmoil and uncertainty resulting from American interference in Panama elections.

Advocates End of Autonomy.

"As long as America is going to dictate our elections, anyway," said a prominent Panamanians it would be better to put an end to the useless expense of autonomy."

The Post-Dispatch correspondent has learned authoritatively that the coaling question was misunderstood in the Beverly dispatches. The proposed combination was not contemplated.

The question of the coaling concessions on the canal is such that President Taft could settle it without coming to the Isthmus. The same is true of the fortification question, as all the plans are already made, and Panama could not, if it would, resist the further encroachment on her territory which the execution of these plans entail.

Consequently President Taft's visit is made all the more perplexing by the denial that the status of the republic is under consideration.

ELGIN BOARD FORCED TO TAKE IN NEW TERRITORY

Adding of New States May Mean Removal of Butter Board to Another State.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—Elgin, the word which marks the standard and dictates the price of butter throughout the country from New York to California is threatened with elimination from the vocabulary of the butter market. There is little or no genuine Elgin butter these days, because the greater portion of the milk in the Elgin butter district is required to supply Chicago.

Recognizing these new conditions, the members of the Elgin Butter Board are rewriting its rules and by-laws and extending the district so as to include, if possible all of Wisconsin, part of Minnesota and a part of Iowa. The present Elgin district includes all of Illinois, a few counties in Southern Wisconsin and two counties in Iowa.

Because Chicago draws practically all the milk from the present Elgin district, the board is forced to take in additional territory. This will mean an entire reorganization of the Butter Board with all the creameries of Wisconsin and Minnesota, who wish to join the board, having a voice in fixing the standards and quoting prices. It also means that with the Wisconsin creameries in the majority the Butter Board may be moved from Elgin to some Wisconsin city.

Illinois Bank Dividend Ordered.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—A second dividend of 10 per cent was declared yesterday by the Comptroller of the Currency to creditors of the Spring Valley National Bank of Spring Valley, Ill. Total dividends paid are now 35 per cent. The bank closed on July 5, 1905.
